NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

STATE CHAMPIONS • ACC CHAMPIONS • COTTON BOWL CHAMPIONS

Clemson posted an undefeated 15-0 record, becoming the first team to accomplish the feat since Penn in 1897. The Tigers won each of their final 10 games by 20+ points.

Clemson finished its sixth undefeated season (1900,1906, 1948, 1950, 1981, 2018) and fourth perfect season (1900, 1948, 1981, 2018) in school history.

Clemson had a 15-0 record against a schedule that included a school-record 12 games against teams that finished with winning records.

Clemson's roster included 26 members who had already earned degrees before the game was played, including two with master's degrees.

ONE OF THE ERA'S WINNINGEST PROGRAMS

10-WIN SEASONS

Clemson enters 2022 riding a streak of 11 consecutive seasons with 10+ wins. The program's 10th consecutive 10-win season in 2020 made Clemson only the third program in FBS history to produce a "double-double," double-digit wins in a double-digit number of consecutive seasons. Clemson's gritty 10-win season in 2021 extended the streak to 11.

The record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 14, shared by Florida State (1987-2000) and Alabama (2008-21). This season, Clemson will attempt to join those two as the only programs ever to reach 10 wins in a dozen straight seasons. The Tigers have 18 10-win seasons, with 11 coming under Dabo Swinney.

In 2020, Clemson and Oklahoma's six-year streaks of outright titles made the two programs the first among current Power Five programs to win at least six straight outright titles since Oklahoma (12 from 1948-59) as part of the now-dissolved Big 8 Conference.

Clemson also won the 1940 and 1948 Southern Conference titles under Frank Howard. Howard won eight total conference titles, including two in the Southern Conference and six in the ACC.

SIGN AND DEVELOP

Head Coach Dabo Swinney has long stated that a true ranking of a recruiting class cannot and should not be published until four years later when the group can be evaluated on performance rather than potential. The Athletic has annually assumed that role in recent years, re-ranking every recruiting class four years later to account for on-field performance.

The re-rankings illustrate Clemson's pristine recent track record of talent identification, culture fit, resource allocation and player development.

THE CLEMSON FOOTBALL STANDARD

CLEMSON CONTINUES TO BE A MODEL IN THE CLASSROOM AND ON THE FIELD UNDER HEAD COACH DABO SWINNEY.

On average, Clemson finished roughly 12th in the 247 Composite team rankings across the 2014-18 recruiting cycles. Upon re-ranking those groups, despite having little room for improvement while recruiting at a Top 15 clip in that span, Clemson ranked 3.2 on average in the re-rankings, a ratings bump of about eight-and-a-half spots. Each of those Clemson classes averaged at least 12 wins a season during their careers.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- Through the spring of 2022, of 324 eligible players who completed their athletic eligibility at Clemson and/or graduated early in Dabo Swinney's 13 full years as head coach, 318 (98 percent) have earned a degree during their time at Clemson.
- Clemson broke program multi-year APR records in three straight years from 2017-19 (987 in 2016-17, 992 in 2017-18 and 993 in 2018-19) before the NCAA suspended APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic. Upon reinstatement of APR reporting in June 2022, Clemson shattered its multi-year APR record with a 999 covering the 2017-18 through 2020-21 academic years.
- Clemson's 999 APR in that span tied Ole Miss for the FBS lead and finished tied for second nationally across all of Division I, trailing only Columbia University of the Ivy League. Clemson's lofty academic success in that period coincided with on-field excellence that included four ACC titles, four College Football Playoff berths, two national championship game berths and the 2018 national championship.
- Along with Air Force, Navy, Northwestern and Washington, Clemson is one of only five FBS programs to produce a 985+ multi-year APR in each of the last four reported cycles.
- The NCAA recognized Clemson with its annual APR Public Recognition Award, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports, for nine of its last 10 reported academic cycles prior to the suspension of APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic. Only 37 of the 130 FBS programs earned at least one APR recognition across the 2009-10 through 2018-19 academic years. Only 30 of programs earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern were the only ones to earn the award 9+ times in that 10-year span.
- With its award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson became the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).
- Clemson is the only program in the country to finish in both the Top 10 percent of NCAA APR data AND the AP Top 25 in 10 of the last 11 academic cycles.
- In 2018, in addition to becoming major college football's first 15-0 team since 1897, Clemson recorded a then-program-record 66 student-athletes with a 3.0 or better GPA in the midst of setting a program record for team GPA.
- That year, Christian Wilkins became the first William V. Campbell Trophy winner in school history, collecting the award known colloquially as the "Academic Heisman Trophy." He became the fifth player in the award's history, and the first in the College Football Playoff era, to earn the honor and a national championship in the same season, joining Alabama's Barrett Jones (2012), Miami's Joaquin Gonzales (2001), Florida's Danny Wuerffel (1996) and Nebraska's Rob Zatechka (1994).
- Chad Carson and Kyle Young were first-team Academic All-Americans in the 2000 and 2001 seasons. Clemson was the only Division I school in the nation with two first-team picks each year. Young was a first-team Academic All-American from 1999-01 and became just the second ACC player in history to be a three-time, first-team selection. He is one of just two offensive linemen in college football history to be a three-time, first-team Academic All-American.
- Dalton Freeman was an All-American on the field and off the field in 2012. He was a first-team All-America center according to AFCA and second-team Academic All-American by CoSIDA.
- Deshaun Watson passed 37 hours during the 2015-16 academic year and threw 35 touchdown passes. He was first quarterback on record to accomplish 35 of each in same academic year.
- Only eight players that applied for early entry for the NFL Draft had their degrees at the 2017 NFL Combine. Four of the eight (Deshaun Watson, Wayne Gallman, Artavis Scott and Mike Williams) were from Clemson.
- Entering the bowl season of its 2018 national championship campaign, Clemson's roster featured 26 graduates, the most of any bowl team.

COACHING SUCCESS

- Dabo Swinney has a record of 150-36 in his head coaching career in 14 seasons. With his 150th win at the end of his 14th season, he joined Urban Meyer (165) and Bob Stoops (160) as the only coaches in FBS history to win 150 games in the first 15 seasons of a head coaching career.
- Swinney earned his 150th career win in only his 186th career game as head coach. He became the sixth-fastest coach in FBS history to 150 wins, trailing only Urban Meyer (176), Gil Dobie (180), Barry Switzer (180), Fielding Yost (184) and Joe Paterno (184). Swinney became the fourth-fastest to 150 wins in the modern era.
- Swinney (150) is already second in history in coaching wins as a member of the ACC. Bobby Bowden leads the way with 173.
- Swinney won 12 coach-of-the-year honors in the 2015 season, two ACC and 10 for national coach of the year. That included national coach of the year by Associated Press, ESPN, Sporting News, Walter Camp Foundation and the American Football Coaches Association. The former Crimson Tide player also won the Bear Bryant Award in 2015, 2016 and 2018, becoming the first three-time winner in the award's history. Swinney also won the Gene Stallings Award and FCA Coach of the Year in 2014 and the Bobby Dodd Award in 2011. Swinney was inducted into the state of Alabama Hall of Fame in 2018 and was selected as honorary coach of the AFCA Good Works Team in 2019.
- A Clemson assistant coach was a Frank Broyles Award finalist in four straight years from 2015-18 and won the award in back-to-back years. Brent Venables was a finalist in 2015 and won the award in 2016. Tony Elliott won the award in 2017, and Jeff Scott was a finalist in 2018 (and semifinalist in 2019). The wins by Venables and Elliott in 2016-17 represented the first time two different coaches from the same school won the award in consecutive years.
- Clemson has a legendary coaching history. Four former Tiger coaches (John Heisman, Frank Howard, Jess Neely and Danny Ford) are in the College Football Hall of Fame. Howard was Clemson's coach when the ACC was founded and promptly took the Tigers to six ACC titles. Howard's eight overall conference championships in 30 years remain a Clemson record, though Dabo Swinney can match the mark with his next conference title.
- Howard concluded his career with 165 victories, and his 30-year tenure is still fifth-longest in NCAA history for a head coach serving at one school. His victory total was extraordinary considering Clemson played just 38 percent of the games at home during Howard's tenure.

- Danny Ford coached Clemson to the 1981 national championship and won six bowl games in his Tiger career. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December 2017. He was the consensus national coach of the year in 1981, and he remains the youngest coach (33) to win a national title. He was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 2013.

BOWL HISTORY

- Clemson enters 2022 having earned a bowl berth in each of the last 17 seasons, the longest streak in the ACC and the fifth-longest streak in the nation. The 17-year streak more than doubles the second-longest streak in school history (seven from 1985-91). Clemson is 12-9 in bowls in that stretch, including two bowl games in 2015, 2016, 2018 and 2019 as part of the College Football Playoff.
- Clemson's 26 all-time bowl wins are tied for the 10th-most in college football history.
- Clemson won a bowl game every year from 2012-16 against a program led by a head coach who won a national title at some point in his career. That includes two in 2016, when the Tigers beat Urban Meyer (Ohio State) and Nick Saban (Alabama). Clemson added an additional win over Saban's Alabama squad in 2018.
- Fourteen of Clemson's 26 bowl wins have come against coaches who have won the FBS National Championship at some point in their careers. That includes wins over Les Miles (LSU) in 2012, Urban Meyer (Ohio State) in 2013 and 2016, Bob Stoops (Oklahoma) in 2014 and 2015, and Nick Saban in 2016 and 2018. A 15th win can be claimed with that figure when including national championships at all levels, as Clemson defeated then-Notre Dame Head Coach Brian Kelly, who won two Division II titles at Grand Valley State, in the 2018 Cotton Bowl.
- Clemson's first bowl game was a 6-3 victory over Boston College and Head Coach Frank Leahy in the 1940 Cotton Bowl. Clemson did not return to the Cotton Bowl until 2018, defeating Notre Dame, 30-3, in a College Football Playoff semifinal during a 15-0 national championship campaign.
- Clemson is 8-2 in its history in bowl games against Nebraska, Ohio State and Oklahoma, three of the top-eight programs in college football history in terms of wins. Clemson is the only program to have beaten Oklahoma three times in bowl play and is one of only three schools with multiple bowl victories over the Sooners to its credit. The Tigers are 4-1 vs. Ohio State and 1-1 vs. Nebraska. Including a 1-0 bowl mark against Notre Dame, 1-0 record against Penn State and 2-2 record against Alabama, Clemson is 12-4 in bowls all-time against the eight winningest programs in major college football history.
- Clemson has twice won bowl games in five straight years, including all five bowl games across the 1986-90 seasons and at least one bowl win in five straight seasons across seven bowl games from 2012-16.
- Between both bowl games and conference championship games, Clemson has won at least one postseason game in 11 straight years, the longest streak in the country.
- Hall of Fame Head Coach Woody Hayes suffered his final defeat against the Tigers in the 1978 Gator Bowl. Overall, Clemson has won 11 bowl games against head coaches who are enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame (Frank Leahy, Don Faurot, Andy Gustafson, Woody Hayes, Tom Osborne, Joe Paterno, Barry Switzer, Don Nehlen, Phillip Fulmer and two against Bob Stoops).

EXPOSURE

- From 2018-20, Clemson games accounted for the four most-watched college football games and five of the 10 most-watched games.
- Clemson played in the most-watched game of five of six seasons from 2015-20, including when its 2020 semifinal game against Ohio State outdrew the national championship.
- Even as the industry transitions toward streaming, 97 of Clemson's last 99 games in the last seven years have aired on television.
- Clemson has played in the featured contest on ESPN's College GameDay 29 times, including 21 times since the start of the 2015 season. Clemson is 16-5 in those contests.
- Clemson's 2021 Cheez-It Bowl appearance drew the bowl's highest television ratings since the 2013 season.
- The interest in watching Clemson play hasn't been limited to television broadcasts. Clemson continues to provide one of the great in-venue experiences in all of sports, as Clemson enters 2022 having been ranked in the Top 20 in the nation average home attendance at Memorial Stadium for 41 straight seasons. Clemson has also led the ACC in average home attendance each of the last 12 years.
- The first game on ACC Network was Clemson vs. Georgia Tech from Death Valley on Aug. 29, 2019.

HALL OF FAME

- Eight members of Clemson's program have been enshrined in the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame, including four coaches and four student-athletes.
- Clemson's Hall of Fame tradition began with John Heisman, who coached Clemson from 1900-03 and was Clemson's first inductee as part of the Class of 1954. Clemson coach and administrator Jess Neely was inducted in 1971. Frank Howard, Clemson's all-time winningest coach, followed with induction in 1989. Danny Ford, who led Clemson to the 1981 national championship at the age of 33, entered the Hall in 2017.
- Multi-sport legend Banks McFadden was the first Clemson player enshrined, earning induction in 1959. Two members of Clemson's 1981 national championship defense, Terry Kinard (2001) and Jeff Davis (2007), went on to earn induction after the turn of the century. Both members of Clemson's 1978 recruiting class, the duo made Clemson's 1978 recruiting class the first in ACC history to produce two Hall of Famers.
- Of the 5.47 million individuals who have played college football since Princeton first battled Rutgers on Nov. 6, 1869, including the Class of 2021, only 1,038 players and 223 coaches have been immortalized in the Hall. Selection to it puts these Tiger legends who earned the distinction in the top 0.02 percent of those ever to play or coach college football.
- C.J. Spiller earned induction in the Class of 2021 in his second year of eligibility. Said Dabo Swinney of Spiller's induction: "For him to get in on his second attempt is such a compliment to the respect for his college football career… For me personally, he was my first five-star, my first first-rounder, my first Pro Bowler, and now my first College Football Hall of Famer. Hopefully there will be some more to come down the years, but it's only fitting that C.J. was the first."
- Clemson had a special night in New York City on Dec. 11, 2001. That evening, Terry Kinard was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame and Kyle Young was a recipient of a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award. Clemson was the only school in the nation with one of each in 2001.

NATIONAL HONORS

- Clemson has a history of decorated football players. It boasts 101 players who have earned first, second or third-team All-America honors in its history.
- Clemson has produced at least one consensus All-American in three of the last four years and in nine of Dabo Swinney's 13 full seasons as head coach.

- In 2018, Wilkins joined William Perry, Levon Kirkland, Anthony Simmons and Sammy Watkins as three-time Tiger All-Americans. Clelin Ferrell joined Terry Kinard as the only two-time, first-team AP All-Americans in Tiger history with his second consecutive selection. Ferrell also won the Ted Hendricks Award as the nation's top defensive end, joining Da'Quan Bowers as one of two Hendricks Award winners in school history.
- The 2019 season marked the second straight year in which Clemson captured ACC Player of the Year (Travis Etienne), Offensive Player of the Year (Etienne) and Defensive Player of the Year (Isaiah Simmons). It marked the fifth time that one team swept all three awards since the inception of the offensive and defensive honors in 1993, but it represented the first time a program had accomplished a sweep of the three awards in consecutive years.
- In 2018, Clemson swept honors for ACC Coach of the Year (Dabo Swinney), ACC Player of the Year (Etienne), ACC Offensive Player of the Year (Etienne) and ACC Defensive Player of the Year (Clelin Ferrell), becoming the first school to do so since Maryland in 2001. Expanded to include Trevor Lawrence's selection as Offensive Rookie of the Year, Clemson was the first program to secure all those conference honors since Florida State in 1997.
- Vic Beasley was a two-time first-team All-American and the first Tiger since Bennie Cunningham to be a two-time All-American, Clemson graduate and first-round pick (1976 NFL draft). Christian Wilkins and Clelin Ferrell later accomplished the feat in the 2019 draft, as did Travis Etienne in the 2021 draft.
- Sammy Watkins, who was the No. 4 overall pick of the 2014 NFL Draft, was the first player in Clemson history to be named a first-team All-American by at least one service in three different seasons. Wilkins became the second such player in school history in 2018.
- When Watkins was named a first-team All-American as a first-year freshman in 2011, he joined Georgia's Herschel Walker (1980), San Diego State's Marshall Faulk (1991) and Oklahoma's Adrian Peterson (2004) as the only first-year freshman non-kickers in history to earn AP First-Team All-America honors.
- Clemson has had eight players win 11 national position awards since 2010. Deshaun Watson won the Manning Award and the Davey O'Brien Award as the top quarterback in 2015 and 2016. He also won the Unitas Award in 2016 and the Chic Harley Award. He won the Archie Griffin Award as top player in the nation in 2015, and the award also collected by Trevor Lawrence in 2018. Dwayne Allen won the Mackey

Sammy Watkins, Vic Beasley, Deshaun Watson, Clelin Ferrell, Christian Wilkins and Travis Etienne were all multi-time selections.

CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION

- The Tigers were named national champions by every service in 1981, 2016 and 2018. In 1981, Clemson was the only school in the nation with a perfect record (12-0). It included three wins over top-10 teams (Georgia, Nebraska, North Carolina), the only team to beat three top-10 teams in 1981.
- The 1981 team had five All-Americans, including first-team selections Jeff Davis, Terry Kinard and Perry Tuttle. Thirty-one players on the 1981 squad were eventually drafted by the NFL and 22 players eventually played in the NFL. Twenty-three different players on the 1981 roster were First-Team All-ACC selections at one time during their Clemson careers.
- Clemson won its second national title in 2016 with a 14-1 record. The Tigers played the nation's toughest schedule that year, beating six teams that finished in the top 25 of the AP poll. Eleven Clemson opponents that year finished with a winning record. The Tigers defeated No. 3 Louisville, No. 2 Ohio State and No. 1 Alabama over the course of the season.
- Clemson earned its third national title in 2018 by becoming the first major college team to post a 15-0 record since Penn in 1897. - Clemson won or was co-champions of the ACC Atlantic Division eight times in 11 years (2009,11,12,15,16,17,18,19) and then earned a title game berth in a division-less season in 2020.
- Clemson won the 2011, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 ACC Championships under Dabo Swinney. Clemson is 52-5 in ACC regular season play in the last seven seasons.
- From 2015-20, Clemson became the first team in ACC history to win six consecutive outright conference titles (2015-20). Clemson and Oklahoma's six-year streaks of outright conference titles those years made the two programs the first among current Power Five programs to win at least six straight outright titles since Oklahoma (12 from 1948-59).
- Every Clemson signing class under Swinney except for the classes of 2021 and 2022 has at least one ACC title to their credit in their tenures at Clemson, and every signing class from 2012-20 earned at least one College Football Playoff berth.
- In addition to its 20 ACC titles, Clemson won the Southern Conference title in 1940 and 1948 along with winning the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association in 1900, 1902, 1903 and 1906, giving the program 26 conference crowns, more than any other school in the ACC.

NFL LEGACIES

- Brian Dawkins had his #20 retired by the Philadelphia Eagles during the 2012 season. Dawkins played 13 seasons for the Eagles and was named to the Pro Bowl seven times while playing for that franchise and nine times overall. He became Clemson's first enshrinee in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in August 2018.
- The late Dwight Clark had his #87 retired by the San Francisco 49ers after he finished his career in 1987. He was a starter on the 49ers' Super Bowl teams from the 1981 and 1984 seasons. He is most famous for his game-winning catch on a pass from Joe Montana against Dallas in the 1982 NFC Championship Game. Clark was the NFL MVP in the 1982 season, the only former Tiger to win NFL MVP honors.
- Charlie Waters was a three-time Pro Bowl pick with the Dallas Cowboys. He played on two Super Bowl teams.
- Waters and Jeff Bostic were both named to ESPN's 40-Man Roster of Greatest Super Bowl players, released prior to Super Bowl XL.
- The Perry brothers (William, Michael Dean) were starters on Clemson's 1984 defense. Both were named to the ACC's 50-Year Anniversary team in 2002. William played on Clemson's 1981 National Championship team as a freshman, then on the Super Bowl champion Bears of 1985. Michael Dean played in six Pro Bowls with Cleveland and Denver, second-most among former Tigers. Both were named ACC Player of the Year during their careers, William in 1984 and Michael Dean in 1987. They are the only brother combination in ACC history that can make that claim.

NFL DRAFT PICKS

Clemson's entire starting defensive line from 2018 was drafted in the first four rounds in a span of the draft's first 117 picks.

A 1996 Clemson graduate, Dawkins was an All-American on Clemson's 1995 team. He became the first player in NFL history in 2002 to register a sack, interception, recovered fumble and receiving touchdown in the same game. He was named to the Pro Bowl nine times in his career, including the 2012 Pro Bowl after his final season.
- Levon Kirkland was named to the NFL All-Decade team (1990s) for his play with the Pittsburgh Steelers. Dawkins was named to the All-Decade team for the 2000s for his play with the Philadelphia Eagles.

- The 2021 season marked the 35th year that Clemson was ranked in the final AP poll. It was the 14th time in the last 17 years – and 11th straight year – that Clemson was ranked in the final poll.
- Clemson fought back from a 4-3 start in 2021 to finish 10-3 and No. 14 in the final AP poll. Alabama (14 years), Clemson (11) and Ohio State (10) are the only programs with active streaks of 10 years or longer finishing in the top 15 of the AP poll.
- Clemson was ranked in the top 25 of 107 consecutive AP polls from 2014-21, the second-longest active streak in the nation prior to its conclusion. It was the longest streak in school history, more than doubling 50-poll streaks from both 2011-14 and 1989-92.
- Prior to dropping to No. 6 following a one-possession loss to the eventual national champions in the 2021 season opener, Clemson ranked in the Top 5 of 57 consecutive polls, dating to 2017. That ranked as the second-longest Top 5 streak in the history of the AP poll, which dates to 1936. Clemson's school record streak of consecutive polls in the AP Top 10 also concluded at 97, the third-longest streak in poll history.
- Clemson was in the top 20 of all the final polls from 1986-91, a six-year streak. The Tigers had two losses in each of those six years. Clemson is in the midst of a school-record nine-year streak of top-20 finishes.
- The Tigers have beaten an AP-ranked opponent 32 of last 36 years, including 46 top-25 wins in the last 19 years. Dabo Swinney has recorded a Clemson-record 36 top-25 wins in his head coaching tenure.
- Clemson beat four top-25 teams in 2015 and five in 2016. The 2017 team broke that record with six.

1981 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP SEASON

NOTES

- Clemson won its first national title in any sport and the first for the ACC in football in 28 years.
- Clemson had five different players earn All-America honors, at the time more than any other Tiger team in history.
- There was no controversy concerning the voting of the National Champion in 1981. Clemson ended the season as the only undefeated, untied team and was the only team with three top-10 wins.
- Head Coach Danny Ford (age 33 at the time) remains the youngest head coach in history to win the National Championship.
- Clemson forced 41 turnovers in the 12 games, still a school record for turnovers forced in a season.
- During one stretch in the season, the Clemson defense held the opposition without a touchdown for 18 consecutive quarters and no opponent scored a rushing touchdown against Clemson during the first seven games of the season.
- Clemson won the national title in 1981 after going 6-5 the previous year. The Tigers were unranked in every preseason poll.
- Clemson's victory improvement of 5.5 games from the 1980 season to the 1981 season was the largest improvement in the nation.
- Only one team (Wofford) had more time of possession in a game against Clemson all season.
- Clemson had the lead at the end of the first quarter in only four of the 12 games.
- Clemson scored 316 points during the regular season of 1981, the exact same total Georgia scored during its 11-game regular season of 1980, the year the Bulldogs won the National Championship.
- Good health was a big reason for Clemson's success in the 1981 season. Only five different starters missed any games during the entire season and no player missed more than two games all year. A collective total of only eight games were missed by five starters during the 1981 season.
- No opponent had a carry longer than 26 yards and no opponent had a play over 30 yards. The longest touchdown play against Clemson was 25 yards, on a halfback option pass from Mike Rozier to Anthony Steels (Nebraska) in the Orange Bowl.
- During offseason conditioning in the summer of 1981, Strength Coach George Dostal constructed a simple sign for his strength training facility..."1982 Orange Bowl, Clemson vs. Nebraska."
- The Clemson senior student who was in charge of pep rallies in 1981 was former CBS This Morning anchor Jane Robelot.
- The day after Clemson won at North Carolina, placekicker Donald Igwebuike flew to Maryland, where Clemson's No. 3 soccer team beat Maryland 4-0 to clinch the ACC title. Igwebuike played on two ACC title teams that fall, both of which finished in the top 10 in the nation.

NOTES

- National champions for the second time in school history, including the first time since 1981.
- The Tigers finished with a 14-1 record after defeating previously-undefeated and top-ranked Alabama 35-31 in the CFP National Championship Game on Jan. 9. Clemson's 14 wins tied the FBS record for victories in a season. It was the second year both Alabama and Clemson finished with 14-1 records.
- Clemson won the national championship while playing the nation's most difficult schedule according to the NCAA. Tiger opponents were 107-51 (.677) when not playing Clemson.
- Clemson was just the sixth national champion (since 1977) to have played the nation's most difficult schedule the season it won the title.
- Clemson defeated 11 FBS schools that finished the season with a winning record, including five that totaled 10+ wins and six who finished in the top 25 of the AP poll. Those schools were No. 2 Alabama, No. 6 Ohio State, No. 8 Florida State, No. 16 Virginia Tech, No. 21 Louisville and No. 24 Auburn. The six wins over teams that finished in the AP top 25 were the most in school history.
- For the sixth straight year, Clemson finished at least the same in its final poll as its preseason ranking by AP. Clemson was No. 2 in the preseason AP and coaches polls, then finished No. 1.
- Clemson beat top-ranked Alabama to win the national title, the first time Clemson defeated the No. 1 team. In the CFP semifinal, Clemson defeated No. 2 Ohio State 31-0. It marked the first time Clemson beat a No. 2 ranked team. Clemson was 0-9 in history when playing teams ranked in the top two, then defeated both in consecutive games just nine days apart.
- Clemson defeated No. 3 Louisville earlier in the season, giving Clemson wins over the No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3 teams.
- Clemson was never ranked No. 1 until the final poll and had to defeat a team (Alabama) that had been ranked No. 1 in every poll entering the playoff. It marked the first time a team defeated an opponent in the championship game who had been No. 1 in every poll since 2006, when Florida defeated Ohio State to win the national championship. It also happened in 2005, when Texas defeated Southern California, and in 1983, when Miami (Fla.) defeated Nebraska.
- Clemson was the first non-SEC team to beat Auburn and Alabama in the same year since 1990, when Southern Mississippi achieved the distinction.
- Clemson had a 3-0 record against SEC teams, the first time the Tigers defeated three SEC teams in one season.
- Clemson defeated Auburn, Florida State, Ohio State and Alabama, the programs that had combined to win each of the previous seven national championships.

CREDENTIALS

Arrangements for media credentials for Clemson's home football games must be made through the Clemson Athletic Communications office. Requests by accredited media members must be made through the online credentialing system at SportsSystems.com/Clemson. Online credential requests for each Clemson home game will open two weeks prior to each game and will close at noon ET on Wednesday prior to each game.

Contact Chandler Simpson (mcsimp2@clemson.edu) or any member of the athletic communications team for more information on credential requests for Memorial Stadium.

The Clemson University Athletics Media Credential Policy is available in full at ClemsonTigers.com/MediaPolicy. The policy details credential eligibility and issuance priority for national and local outlets that cover Clemson football or its opponents on a regular basis. All credential approvals are made on a game-by-game basis independent of previous approvals and/or denials, and credential decisions for each contest are not beholden to prior credentialing precedents. Due to space limitations, credential quantities may be limited to a number lower than the total requested.

All credential requests will be filled on a space-available basis. Non-working spouses, dates, relatives, non-workers and anyone 16 years of age or younger are not permitted in the press box.

Media credential holders in the press box who are not actively covering the game, or credential wearers on the sideline who are not on assignment, will be asked to leave those respective areas. Press box or sideline security will be contacted should the credential wearer not comply. Credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately, and organizations responsible for credentials falling into improper hands will have credentials revoked for the rest of the year or the succeeding year, at the university's discretion.

EMAIL DISTRIBUTION LIST

Notes, stats, stories and other information are emailed out on a weekly basis from the athletic communications office. Media members may contact Brian Hennessy (bhennes@clemson.edu) to be put on the email list.

PARKING

A limited number of parking spaces reserved for the media is available on a game-by-game basis. Requests for media parking passes should be specified with credential requests. Due to space limitations, not all requests will be fulfilled.

Additionally, no motorhomes, campers or oversized vehicles will be permitted in media parking. Parking pass requests for satellite trucks should be made at least one week in advance.

PHOTOGRAPHERS & VIDEOGRAPHERS

Clemson follows guidelines established by the NCAA communications committee and ACC regarding sideline control to make certain the sideline is a working media area.

The following guidelines are adhered to:

1) Each photographer and runner is required to wear a photo vest.
2) Photo vests must be secured at the photographer's credential pickup at media will call outside Game 10 (visitors' tunnel). Both the credential and the photo vest must be worn on the field.
3) Prior to kickoff while recruits are present, photographers are not allowed south of the goalpost in the west endzone nor west of the south sideline 50-yard line.
4) After kickoff, no photographers are permitted in the bench area nor on the playing field.
5) Photo assistants or others holding a "sideline" pass must remain out of the photo area immediately adjacent to the playing field. This will make certain that photographers/videographers have the appropriate working area.
6) Tripods are not permitted on the sidelines.
7) The areas behind the team benches are considered bench areas and are to be used only for the passage between the north and south sidelines. This area may not be used as a photo zone.

PRESS BOX

The Bob Bradley Press Box is located on the first floor on the south side of Memorial Stadium. All radio and television booths, in addition to the press area, are on the same level. Photographers are encouraged to use the space available at field level, accessible in the visiting tunnel adjacent to the visitor locker room.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

All requests to speak with players, coaches and staff should be directed to Ross Taylor (rt5@clemson.edu) or a member of the Clemson athletic communications staff. Members of the media who reach out directly to players, coaches or staff without prior approval of Clemson staff may face suspension or revocation of credentials.

2022 OUTLOOK

"The torch has been passed."

That was Head Coach Dabo Swinney's message to his 2022 team at the start of mat drills in February, as Clemson's newest squad will stand on the shoulders of teams that passed down an 11-year streak of 10-win seasons as well as the nation's longest home winning streak (34 games) and the Power Five's longest active winning streak (six).

The 2021 Tigers faced a perfect storm of injuries, attrition, adversity and inexperience in key positions, but they åbattled to finish 10-3 in what Swinney called a victory for the team's culture. Clemson continued its historic 10-win-season streak despite only four offensive or defensive players starting every game and despite the Tigers ending the season with an incredible 30 scholarship players unavailable.

But for all of the strife those injuries created in 2021, Clemson stands to benefit from them greatly in 2022. Clemson returns 54 lettermen among its 82 returning players that have appeared in at least one game at Clemson, and while Clemson returns 15 of its 22 primary offensive and defensive starters from 2021, a total of 37 different returning players have started at least one career game for the Tigers.

OFFENSE

A year ago, Clemson lost seven of its 11 offensive starters from its 2020 College Football Playoff squad and returned players responsible for only 31 percent of the team's total offense from the prior year, which ranked 125th out of 130 FBS teams. The unit gained valuable experience throughout 2021 and enters 2022 more battle-tested and carrying momentum gained from the emergence of young contributors down the stretch.

Clemson leaned heavily on the running game in 2021, as Clemson averaged at least 150 rushing yards per game for the 11th straight season. However, the Tigers will seek to restore their signature balance in 2021, as Clemson stands as one of only two teams in the country to both run for at least 11,000 yards and pass for at least 15,000 yards since 2018.

The balance and the resulting success of the Clemson offense since the 2014 postseason resulted in Clemson graduate and long-time Clemson playcaller Tony Elliott earning the head coaching job at Virginia last December. Promoted in the wake of his departure was Brandon Streeter, Clemson's quarterbacks coach who added the title of Offensive Coordinator prior to the team's 2021 Cheez-It Bowl win. While 2022 will be his first full season calling plays for his alma mater, Streeter spent six years as an offensive coordinator at Liberty (2009-11) and Richmond (2012-14) before joining the Tigers for the 2014 postseason.

QUARTERBACKS

Streeter and Clemson's offense enter the spring with the luxury of three former five-star recruits and two talented former walk-ons in its quarterbacks group. The incumbent at quarterback is junior DJ Uiagalelei, who started all 13 games for Clemson a season ago and enters 2022 with an 11-4 career record as a starter. Uiagalelei's 862 snaps in 2021 were the most in a season by a Clemson quarterback since 2017 (Kelly Bryant, 886), as the first-year starter and former No. 2 overall recruit in the Class of 2020 guided the Tigers to a 10-win season while Clemson ended the season starting two true freshmen and a fifth-year former walk-on at wide receiver in each of the season's final three games.

True freshman Cade Klubnik joined the group in January as a mid-year enrollee after the consensus five-star recruit became the first quarterback to go undefeated as a starter while winning back-to-back state titles in Texas' highest classification since Allen's Kyler Murray. The Texas Gatorade Player of the Year joined the Tigers following a prep career in which he posted a 27-0 mark as a starter at Class 6A powerhouse Austin Westlake, contributing on three consecutive state championship teams including the final two as the starting quarterback.

The quarterback group's depth was bolstered in January when Clemson added a new addition in the form of a familiar face. After departing Clemson's program prior to the 2018 season, super senior Hunter Johnson returned to Clemson as a graduate transfer following four years at Northwestern. The much-respected signal-caller maintained relationships at Clemson throughout his time in the Big Ten and reached out to Dabo Swinney about possible graduate assistant openings. Swinney, seeking a veteran presence in the quarterbacks room, instead swayed Johnson to use his "COVID year" and be a sixth-year senior on Clemson's 2022 roster.

Clemson's depth at the position is also bolstered by third-year sophomore Hunter Helms and redshirt freshman Billy Wiles, two former walk-ons who were rewarded with scholarships this offseason after initially passing up on Division I scholarship offers to instead chase their dreams at Clemson.

RUNNING BACKS

Despite amassing a glut of talent at the running back position, Clemson's rushing attack seemed to be at a crossroads after the first four games of 2021, as the Tigers ranked 99th in the country in rushing yards per game through the end of September. Yet thanks in part to a trio of talented young backs that commanded key roles as the season progressed, Clemson averaged more than 200 rushing yards per game (24th in the country) in the month of November as Clemson's offense began to hit its stride in its six-game winning streak to close the year.

Despite being held to two rushing yards in the season opener, under the guidance of first-year running backs coach and College Football Hall of Famer C.J. Spiller, Clemson averaged 168 rushing yards per game, giving Clemson a 150-yard or better rushing average in each of the last 11 seasons. Two different players reached 500 rushing yards, the sixth time in the last seven seasons Clemson has accomplished that feat.

The statistical leader of that duo was sophomore Will Shipley, who earned second-team Freshman All-America honors from The Athletic despite missing several games with multiple injuries at different points of the year. He rushed 149 times for 738 yards (5.0 avg.) with 11 touchdowns (second-most by a Clemson true freshman since 1972), caught 16 passes for 116 yards, averaged 27.1 yards on 14 kickoff returns and threw a two-yard touchdown pass in 2021.

Junior Kobe Pace enjoyed a breakout campaign in his second year in the program, totaling 641 yards and six touchdowns on 104 carries over only 273 snaps in 11 games last fall. The powerful back earned ACC Running Back of the Week after rushing for a career-high 191 yards on 24 carries with two touchdowns vs. No. 13 Wake Forest in November, the most rushing yards by a Clemson player since Travis Etienne's 212 rushing yards against Wofford in 2019.

A year ago, sophomore Phil Mafah appeared destined for a redshirt to help create some roster separation from Shipley and Pace. But after the combination of A) Mafah's emergence, B) the transfers of two other running backs, and C) the impact of the injury bug, Mafah was called into action. The bruising back played in each of Clemson's last nine games, recording 292 yards and three touchdowns on 68 carries and gaining 50 yards on seven receptions over 170 offensive snaps. Mafah received the bulk of the work in the spring with Shipley and Pace sidelined while rehabbing.

Clemson legacy Keith Adams Jr. joined the program in the summer after signing with the Tigers in February.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Few coaches had to adapt in 2021 like Clemson Wide Receivers Coach Tyler Grisham. An almost inconceivable run of injuries resulted in Grisham's unit starting two true freshmen and a fifth-year former walk-on for each of the final three games of the season. The team's leader in starts at wide receiver, receptions and receiving yards was Justyn Ross, who was coming off of missing the entire 2020 season with a career-threatening spinal condition. By season's end, 25 different Tigers caught at least one pass, the most in the Dabo Swinney era.

But Clemson's turnstile at wide receiver and the ensuing opportunity for young players has resulted in the Tigers returning receivers who account for 138 combined career games and five different players who have recorded at least one career start.

The group's elder statesman is senior Joseph Ngata, who leads the returning receivers in both career games (31) and career starts (11). Before the injury bug struck him again midseason, Ngata got off to an impressive start, recording 110 yards on six receptions in the season opener against eventual national champion Georgia, one of only five 100-yard receiving performances surrendered by the Bulldogs last year. He also had an acrobatic touchdown reception in a three-point win at Syracuse in early October.

Junior E.J. Williams similarly fought injuries throughout the 2021 campaign, missing time at various points in the year with hand, knee and leg injuries. But the third-year receiver has been lauded by coaches throughout his tenure for his toughness, and buoyed largely by a strong end to his freshman year in 2020, he will enter 2022 with 32 career receptions for 372 yards and two touchdowns in 20 career games with six starts.

Known as the "Collins Towers" in Dabo Swinney's nomenclature, second-year sophomores Beaux Collins and Dacari Collins emerged down the stretch of their true freshman years in 2021. Beaux joined elite company with his debut season, joining DeAndre Hopkins (2010), Sammy Watkins (2011), Artavis Scott (2014), Hunter Renfrow (2015), Deon Cain (2015) and Justyn Ross (2018) as the only Clemson freshmen — true or redshirt — in the Dabo Swinney era to post at least 30 receptions and at least 400 receiving yards in their first season. Dacari caught 16 passes for 221 yards in nine games and established himself early in his career as one of Clemson's top perimeter blockers.

Clemson will hope for a clean bill of health for fourth-year slot receiver Brannon Spector, who missed the entire 2021 season while working through respiratory challenges. The slot position is also likely to be contested by Troy Stellato, who redshirted as a freshman in 2021, and Will Taylor, the do-it-all dual-sport athlete who passed up MLB riches to play two sports at Clemson, but had his freshman season in 2021 ended prematurely by a knee injury.

Three freshman scholarship signees joined the unit for 2022, including early enrollee Adam Randall and summer enrollees Antonio Williams and Cole Turner. Randall was in the midst of an impressive showing in spring practice before suffering an ACL tear in late March.

TIGHT ENDS

Following his promotion prior to the 2021 Cheez-It Bowl, Kyle Richardson now has purview of Clemson's tight ends as Passing Game Coordinator/Tight Ends Coach. His 2022 group will feature one of the offense's most respected veteran leaders and two young talents who are primed for larger roles after ascending the depth chart in 2021.

The unit is expected to be led by Davis Allen, the senior whom former Offensive Coordinator Tony Elliott once called "his favorite player on the team" in a meeting with ESPN announcers last fall. Allen assumed the starting role on a full-time basis early in the 2021 season and started 10 games for the Tigers, tying for the team lead with three touchdown receptions. He enters his first offseason as an incumbent starter with seven career touchdown catches, three shy of becoming the sixth Clemson tight end ever to catch 10 career touchdown passes.

Allen's contributions will be supplemented by the continued ascents of redshirt sophomore Sage Ennis and sophomore Jake Briningstool. Ennis played in all 13 games for Clemson last season and earned his first career start when Clemson opened in a two-tight-end set against Florida State. Briningstool's raw ability as a pass catcher resulted in him appearing in each of Clemson's last seven games of 2021, playing at least 14 offensive snaps in each of Clemson's last four contests.

Alongside that trio, the group will also feature the longest-tenured player on the roster. Super senior Luke Price joined Clemson as a walk-on linebacker in 2017 and is entering his sixth year in the program (and fourth year as a tight end) in 2022. Josh Sapp, the son of former Clemson quarterback and linebacker Patrick Sapp, joined the program in the summer after signing with the Tigers in December.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Offensive Line Coach Thomas Austin formally took the reins to the unit in February after Robbie Caldwell transitioned into an off-field role following four-and-a-half decades of on-field college coaching. Austin was a two-time All-ACC selection on Clemson's offensive line from 2006-09, appearing in 48 games with 39 starts before moving on to a four-year NFL career.

After being written off by most local and national observers after a tough performance in the season opener against eventual national champion Georgia, Clemson's 2021 offensive line rebounded to allow only 14 sacks in its final 12 games and finished having allowed the second-fewest sacks in the ACC. The unit's strong performance down the stretch came despite the Tigers starting seven different offensive line combinations in 13 games. Clemson lost only one contributing senior offensive linemen from 2021 and has only one senior among its ranks in 2022.

Redshirt senior Jordan McFadden is returning for his fifth season at Clemson and is a prime candidate for preseason All-America and All-ACC honors. Routinely called Clemson's most consistent and reliable offensive lineman a year ago, McFadden earned second-team All-ACC honors after playing the most offensive snaps (872) by any Clemson offensive tackle since multi-time All-American Mitch Hyatt in 2016. McFadden's spot at left tackle is expected to be bookended on the right side by junior Walker Parks, whose nasty on-field demeanor in 869 offensive snaps juxtaposed his Academic All-ACC credentials.

The incumbent at right guard was senior Will Putnam, a multi-year starter who gutted through injuries in 2021 and collected all-conference honors from Phil Steele while hobbled. Putnam transitioned to center in the spring and impressed coaches with his quick adaptation to the position.

Clemson's interior shuffle throughout 2021 paid dividends for the experience and exposure for now-fourth-year interior linemen Mason Trotter, who started seven of the team's final eight games across the guard and center positions but will miss the majority of the 2022 season. Sophomore Marcus Tate earned an opening-night start in the interior as a true freshman and played the best football of his eight starts down the stretch.

Four other fourth-year players are pushing for larger roles, including junior Mitchell Mayes and redshirt sophomores Bryn Tucker, Trent Howard and John Williams. Mayes, Tucker and Howard contributed in reserve during the 2021 season while Williams missed the campaign after suffering a knee injury during fall camp.

Beyond the top-end experience, Clemson's coaches continue to express excitement for the unit's young depth. Redshirt freshman Dietrick Pennington was on track for substantial playing time as a true freshman before suffering a season-ending injury in his Clemson debut, while fellow freshmen Ryan Linthicum and Tristan Leigh spent the bulk of their redshirt years in the weight room. The group was also joined in January by early enrollees Blake Miller and Collin Sadler, a duo Clemson coaches have called as physically ready to play as any Clemson true freshmen offensive linemen in recent memory.

DEFENSE

After a decade under different leadership, the defensive reins were passed to Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers Coach Wes Goodwin prior to 2021 Cheez-It Bowl. In his first game as a defensive play-caller, Goodwin's defense held Iowa State to 270 yards of offense, more than 165 yards below the Cyclones' per-game average entering the contest. The unit was also responsible for what ended up being the game-winning score, as Mario Goodrich's pick-six and the ensuing extra point represented Clemson's final seven points of the 20-13 win.

Goodwin and his staff now set their eyes upon their first full season in 2022 with the benefit of a deep unit that features a front four loaded with both talent and experience. That group will set the standard for a unit that has ranked in the Top 15 in the country in total defense in each of the last eight seasons (the only such program in the nation) and has ranked among the Top 25 in scoring defense in all of those campaigns (including four Top 5 finishes in the category). The 2021 season was Clemson's sixth time finishing in the Top 10 in both categories in the last eight years.

DEFENSIVE TACKLES

Any discussion about the returning strength of the Clemson defense will likely start along the defensive interior, where multiple returning All-ACC selections are backed up by a talented group of options that made significant impacts during Clemson's injury-plagued season in 2021. The group added some serious pedigree in January when Nick Eason, a former Clemson captain and All-ACC selection, returned to his alma mater as Defensive Run Game Coordinator/Defensive Tackles Coach. A veteran of 17 combined NFL seasons as a player and coach, Eason joined Defensive Ends Coach Lemanski Hall to give Clemson's elite defensive line group the guidance of a coaching duo with 26 combined seasons of NFL experience.

Now in his fourth year, senior Tyler Davis leads the group after a year in which he earned first-team All-ACC honors despite missing four games. One of Clemson's most reliable contributors when he's available, Clemson was 8-0 in games started by Davis in 2021 and was 2-3 in games in which he did not play (Georgia, NC State, Boston College and Syracuse) or was limited to playing on a snap count in a reserve role (Pittsburgh). Davis could form one-half of the nation's top defensive tackle duo if junior Bryan Bresee is able to return to form from multiple injuries, including a season-ending knee injury, that sidelined him after four games in 2021. Bresee, the former No. 1 overall recruit in the country in the Class of 2020, earned third-team All-ACC honors as a sophomore despite his season ending prematurely in September.

The two primary beneficiaries of the injuries to Davis and Bresee a year ago were current redshirt junior Ruke Orhorhoro and current redshirt sophomore Tré Williams. The duo combined to play 747 snaps from scrimmage and was credited by the coaching staff with a combined 55 tackles (12 for loss), 3.5 sacks, 11 quarterback pressures and three pass breakups in 24 combined games with 10 starts.

Redshirt junior Etinosa Reuben emerged late in the year, making his first career start at Pittsburgh in late October and notching two sacks in a ranked win against Wake Forest in November. Two sophomores, DeMonte Capehart and Payton Page, combined for nearly 100 snaps on defense a year ago and are expected to benefit in 2022 from better health (Capehart) and another year of development (Page). Signee Caden Story bolstered the group after arriving in the summer.

TRENTON SIMPSON (#22) AND MYLES MURPHY (#98) RETURN TO LEAD THE DEFENSE UNDER FIRST-YEAR COORDINATOR WES GOODWIN.

DEFENSIVE ENDS

Flanking Clemson's interior linemen will be a deep stable of edge rushers who have proven adept in their careers both in the pass rush and against the run. For a fifth straight year in his current role, Lemanski Hall will be charged with managing the rotation for a group of capable and proven ends.

Among the group's leaders will be fifth-year super senior Xavier Thomas and fifth-year redshirt junior K.J. Henry, both of whom entered Clemson as five-star recruits in the Tigers' 2018 recruiting class. The two have played 2,445 combined defensive snaps over 90 career games with 29 combined starts and have accounted for 46.5 combined tackles for loss and 22.5 sacks. A third defensive end in that recruiting class — redshirt senior Justin Mascoll — has also played 833 defensive snaps in 39 career games at Clemson with 11 starts.

Along with Bresee, Clemson recorded another coup on its defensive line in the 2020 recruiting class by snagging now-junior Myles Murphy. The former No. 3 overall recruit in the nation was a Freshman All-American in 2020 and a fourth-team Phil Steele All-American in 2021, joining Gaines Adams, Vic Beasley and Clelin Ferrell as the only Clemson players since 2000 to post multiple seasons with multiple forced fumbles and at least four sacks. In addition to posting 11 sacks in his first two seasons, he has become one of the nation's premier run defenders at his position.

Clemson coaches continued to be pleased with the steady development of redshirt junior Greg Williams and junior Kevin Swint. Both Williams and Swint are converted linebackers whose transitions to defensive end resulted in 14 combined game appearances between the two in 2021.

The veteran-heavy group will be supplemented by redshirt freshman Cade Denhoff, who was the team's 2021 Power Hour MVP as the top redshirting player in the strength & conditioning program, and redshirt freshman Zaire Patterson. Jahiem Lawson, the brother of former Clemson All-American Shaq Lawson, signed in February and joined the team over the summer.

LINEBACKERS

No need to double check the roster; long-time Clemson staple James Skalski has indeed completed his Clemson eligibility and — to the relief of ACC offenses and coordinators — will no longer be patrolling the middle of the field for the Tigers. His graduation along with that of his "Bruise Brother" cohort Baylon Spector represents the departure of a duo that combined for 122 career games with 58 combined starts at Clemson since 2016. In Skalski and Spector's stead sits a diverse group of linebackers ready for use at Goodwin's disposal.

Goodwin values position versatility, which should make his 2022 group another veritable wonderland of options. In the public eye, the group's headliner is junior Trenton Simpson, who has appeared in 25 career games with 15 starts in his first two seasons at Clemson. Simpson has blossomed from a situational edge rusher in 2020 into a complete weapon for Clemson's defense, as the 2021 All-ACC pick by PFF and Phil Steele enters 2022 with 110 tackles (18.5 for loss), 10.0 sacks, three pass breakups and a forced fumble in his career.

If patience is a virtue, the time has come for virtuous redshirt juniors LaVonta Bentley and Keith Maguire, both of whom have flashed in limited opportunities in their three previous seasons at Clemson. Bentley's punishing style resulted in him winning ACC Linebacker of the Week against Georgia Tech, a game which he learned during pregame he was starting as the result of an unexpected injury to Spector in warmups. Maguire was called upon in the 2021 season finale, as he finished with a career-high six tackles against Iowa State after taking over Clemson's Mike linebacker spot following an early injury to Skalski.

Clemson's coaches believe they went 2-for-2 at linebacker in the 2021 recruiting class, and the early returns seem to support the hypothesis. Sophomore Jeremiah Trotter Jr. is the son of four-time Pro Bowler Jeremiah Trotter Sr. and carried himself with an uncommonly professional demeanor in all areas in his freshman season, earning playing time in all 13 games in 2021. His fellow 2021 signee Barrett Carter enters his sophomore year as a possible poster child for Clemson's ascribed value to position versatility, as his 179 defensive snaps last year were almost evenly split between the box and the slot on top of seeing some action deep.

Junior Sergio Allen earned a role as a key special teams contributor on kickoff coverage in the 2021 season, and the former High School Butkus Award semifinalist will attempt to carve out a larger role on defense in 2022 as well. Reinforcements for the group arrived after spring practice, as three 2022 signees, T.J. Dudley, Kobe McCloud and Wade Woodaz, enrolled during the summer session.

CORNERBACKS

Last spring, questions surrounded Clemson's cornerbacks after the Tigers dismissed an All-ACC performer at the position and were coming off surrendering six passing touchdowns in their final game of 2020. All Cornerbacks Coach and new Assistant Head Coach Mike Reed did in response was guide starting cornerbacks Andrew Booth Jr. and Mario Goodrich to first-team All-ACC honors in 2021, making the duo the first pair of cornerbacks from a single school to sweep first-team honors since North Carolina's Dre Bly and Robert Williams in 1997. With Booth and Goodrich both riding their spectacular 2021 seasons into NFL riches, Clemson seeks new starters on the outside in 2022.

Senior Sheridan Jones is the group's senior statesman. Despite playing behind two of the nation's top corners, Jones recorded career highs in tackles and pass breakups in 2021 and enters 2022 having appeared in a position-high 38 career games with 11 starts. Fall camp will be a fertile proving ground for junior Fred Davis II and sophomore Nate Wiggins to state their case for starting roles at the field or boundary corner positions.

Junior Malcolm Greene was limited by injury a bit in 2021 but has served as a capable nickelback in his first two seasons at Clemson, while early enrollees Jeadyn Lukus and Toriano Pride Jr. are both incoming four-star recruits with intent of seizing the outsized playing time opportunity that exists presently in Clemson's cornerback corps. Pride and Lukus were both the subject of frequent praise by Clemson coaches and teammates in the spring.

The group was joined in the summer by Myles Oliver, a sprinter and converted quarterback who signed with Clemson in February.

SAFETIES

Pressed to name Clemson's most decorated and productive units in recent years, it's common to see observers point to Clemson's generational quarterback play in the last decade, its #WRU reputation with pass catchers or its prolific string of havoc-inducing defensive linemen. Yet, very quietly, in five seasons in an on-field coaching role, Safeties Coach and new Co-Defensive Coordinator Mickey Conn has strung together a half-decade of high-level safety play that in the last four years alone has produced two All-Americans, two NFL Draft picks, five All-ACC selections, a Freshman All-American and an ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year.

The latter two accolades belong to now-sophomore Andrew Mukuba, who made an instant impact in his debut season in 2021. The Zimbabwe native by way of Texas became the first defensive back to start a season opener for Clemson since the NCAA instituted permanent freshman eligibility in 1972 and started more games (10) than any other Clemson true freshman defensive back in the modern era. The near-unanimous Freshman All-American became Clemson's second straight ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year, following in the footsteps of Bryan Bresee a year earlier.

The precocious second-year safety expedited his development last year in part thanks to the guidance of then-sixth-year super senior Nolan Turner, and he will once again ride alongside another veteran unit in 2022. Fourth-year players Jalyn Phillips and Lannden Zanders have 62 combined games of experience at Clemson with 17 starts. Zanders battled a shoulder injury through nearly all of 2020 while playing 10 games and then missed all of 2021 except the season opener with a shoulder injury suffered against Georgia, but with the benefit of good health, he would bring more than 500 career defensive snaps to the secondary.

Phillips was one of the primary recipients of the resulting available playing time and finished the 2021 season on a high note with eight tackles (one for loss), a forced fumble and a pass breakup in a win against Iowa State.

Juniors Tyler Venables and R.J. Mickens both now have two years of experience to match their pedigrees. Venables, the son of former Clemson defensive coordinator Brent Venables, elected to stay at Clemson, and his versatility has resulted in him seeing action in safety and nickel/sam roles in 24 career games, while Mickens, the son of long-time NFL veteran Ray Mickens, has played in 23 career games and is the only returning Clemson player with multiple interceptions a season ago.

Both of Clemson's freshman signees at the position have evoked comparisons to former Clemson All-ACC safety and current Philadelphia Eagle K'Von Wallace. Sherrod Covil Jr. joined Clemson in January and is a fellow Virginian like Wallace, while summer enrollee Kylon Griffin offers the same type of diverse skillset and position versatility between the safety, corner and nickel positions that Clemson coaches loved about Wallace.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Dabo Swinney joked that Clemson's biggest signee of its 2022 recruiting class wasn't a freshman or a transfer, it was placekicker B.T. Potter, who opted to use his extra year of eligibility and return for his super senior fifth season. Potter was a Groza Award semifinalist two years ago and enters 2022 as a prime candidate for that award this season, as he is Clemson's school record holder in career field goals of both 40-plus and 50-plus yards and ranks third in Clemson history in career PATs (185), fourth in career points by a kicker (344), fourth in career points (344) and seventh in made field goals (53). He is the only player in Clemson history to score 100 points in three different seasons and he has also been one of the nation's foremost kickoff specialists, recording 280 touchbacks on 368 career kickoffs. Potter's return will allow developmental time for January enrollee Robert Gunn III, who tore his ACL at the end of his high school career.

Will Spiers exhausted his eligibility after a record-breaking five years as Clemson's starting punter, leaving Clemson in search of a new punter for the first time since 2017. Clemson opens fall camp with two scholarship punters on the roster, redshirt junior Aidan Swanson and early enrollee Jack Smith, though both will have to hold off a hard-charging Potter, whose growth as a punter in the spring installed him as a slight favorite to earn that role as well.

Similarly, Clemson will be looking for a new long snapper following the departure of the reliable Jack Maddox. Walk-ons Holden Caspersen and Philip Florenzo are both entering their second year in the program and will continue to battle for that role into the fall.

HEAD COACH DABO SWINNEY

DABO SWINNEY

- HEAD COACH
- 14TH FULL SEASON AS HEAD COACH
- 20TH SEASON ON CLEMSON STAFF
- ALABAMA '93

An illustrious coaching heritage is embedded in the foundation of Clemson football. At the dawn of the 20th century, the Tigers were led by future College Football Hall of Famer John Heisman. Hall of Famers Jess Neely, Frank Howard and Danny Ford followed in Heisman's winning tradition.

Now entering his 15th season (and 14th full season) as Clemson's head coach, Dabo Swinney has already carved his name into that foundation, elevating himself amid a pantheon of Clemson greats by becoming the first coach in program history to lead Clemson to multiple national championships.

His stratospheric start to his head coaching career placed his record not only among Clemson legends but also among the names of the winningest leaders in the more than 150 years of major college football.

With his final win of the 2021 season, Swinney reached 150 career wins in his 186th game as head coach. In terms of games played, Swinney became the sixth-fastest coach in FBS history — and the fourth-fastest in the modern era — to earn 150 career wins, trailing Urban Meyer (176), Gil Dobie (180), Barry Switzer (180), Fielding Yost (184) and Joe Paterno (184). Entering 2022, only 16 coaches in FBS history, including Swinney, had accomplished the feat within 200 games, and 14 of the 16 had been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame, with the lone exceptions being Swinney and Meyer, both of whom are not yet eligible.

The 150th win came in Swinney's 13th full season and his 14th season overall including his seven-game interim stint in 2008. He moved into third place in FBS history for the most coaching wins in the first 15 seasons of a head coaching career, trailing only Meyer (165) and Bob Stoops (160). Swinney will have the opportunity to take aim at both in his 15th season as head coach in 2022.

Though other seasons resulted in more hardware, analysts and observers opined that 2021 might have been Swinney's best coaching job, as the Tiger mentor guided his team through adversity and attrition to overcome a 2-2 start to finish 10-3 and extend Clemson's streak of consecutive 10-win seasons to 11. Clemson entered that October as one of 28 Power Five teams with two or more losses, yet concluded the season along as one of only two of those 28 programs to finish the season having reached 10 wins.

Swinney's 2021 Tigers played seven one-possession games, one shy of the school record, and went 5-2 in those contests. The squad's success came in spite of tremendous turnover and attrition, as 48 different players earned at least one start, eight more than started in the pandemic-impacted 2020 season. Only 23 Clemson players played in all 13 games, and only four offensive or defensive players started all 13. Between injuries and transfers, Swinney held aloft the 2021 Cheez-It Bowl trophy following a game Clemson finished without the services of 30 scholarship players from its initial fall roster.

A year earlier, Swinney's squad accomplished its "double-double mission" in 2020, going 10-2 in a condensed season to give Clemson 10 consecutive 10-win seasons. Clemson became only the third program in FBS history to accomplish the feat and became the first school to win 10 games in 10 straight seasons as a member of the ACC, as only the final nine of Florida State's record 14-straight 10-win seasons came during the Seminoles' tenure in the ACC.

The pandemic-affected 2020 campaign was a historic one for the Tigers both as a team and individually, as quarterback Trevor Lawrence ascended to become the winningest quarterback in school history (34-2) and running back Travis Etienne added the ACC's all-time rushing crown (4,952 yards) to his arsenal of school and conference records. Etienne's versatility as a rusher and receiver earned him consensus All-American honors as an all-purpose selection, while Lawrence became the second Heisman Trophy finalist in program history, tying Deshaun Watson (second in 2016) for the highest finish in Heisman Trophy voting in school history.

The prolific backfield duo under Swinney's tutelage helped guide Clemson to its sixth consecutive outright conference title with a 34-10 win against Notre Dame in the ACC Championship Game. That day, Clemson and Oklahoma's six-year streaks of outright conference titles made the two programs the first among current Power Five programs to win at least six straight outright titles since Oklahoma (12 from 1948-59) as part of the now-dissolved Big 8 Conference.

The conference title helped Clemson secure its record-tying sixth College Football Playoff berth, becoming the first program ever to reach the postseason tournament in six consecutive seasons. Clemson is 6-4 all-time in College Football Playoff games, the second-most wins of any program and twice the number of the third-place programs (three, Georgia and Ohio State).

Clemson finished 2020 as the nation's No. 3 ranked squad, the Tigers' sixth consecutive top-four finish in the AP poll. In doing so, Swinney joined Bobby Bowden (13), Pete Carroll (7) and Bud Wilkinson (6) as the only coaches since the AP Poll's inception in 1936 to record six consecutive top-four finishes. In that stretch, Clemson appeared in the top five of 57 consecutive AP Polls, the second-longest streak in poll history.

Clemson entered the third decade of the 21st century in 2020 after he helped author one of the most prolific 10-year periods in the history of the sport. Clemson had a 117-22 record under Swinney's leadership in the 2010s, and the program's 117 wins trailed only Penn (124 in the 1890s) and Alabama (124 in the 2010s) to tie for the third-most in a decade in major college football since 1890. Clemson's 117 wins in 2010s represented the first 100-win decade in Clemson history.

Before a pandemic-shortened season in 2020, Clemson won at least 12 games in five straight seasons from 2015-19, tied for the longest such streak in the modern era and only two seasons shy of Penn's record seven-season streak from 1892-98. Clemson won 69 games in that five-year span, the most in a five-year stretch in the AP Poll era.

In 2019, the Tigers earned their fifth consecutive College Football Playoff berth following their fifth-consecutive ACC title, becoming the first team in college football history to win five straight conference championship games since conference title games were created in 1992.

Clemson posted a 14-1 record that year, earning its fourth appearance in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game in five years. Prior to the season finale, Clemson extended its school-record winning streak to 29 games, tied with Florida State (2012-14) for the longest streak in ACC history and for the 12th-longest in FBS history.

Clemson dominated the vast majority of its 2019 opponents, including an eight-game streak of wins by 30 or more points to break the longest streak in the AP Poll era, surpassing the previous mark of seven games set by 2011 Houston and 1976 Michigan.

At 150-36, Swinney (.806) enters the 2022 season as the winningest active coach by percentage in the FBS among coaches with at least 10 seasons of head coaching experience. With an initial hire date of Oct. 13, 2008, he is the senior member of the ACC's head coaching fraternity and enters 2022 as the ninth-longest-tenured head coach in the FBS.

Clemson's success on the gridiron has been matched by its prowess in the classroom, as prior to the NCAA suspending APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic, Clemson was one of only three programs to earn top-10 percent APR recognition from the NCAA in at least nine of the previous 10 years, joining Duke and Northwestern. Clemson was in the top 10 of APR scores and the final top 25 of the AP and USA Today polls from 2011-15, the only FBS program that could make that claim. In 2017, Clemson became the first school to reach the College Football Playoff and finish in the top five of APR scores in the same year.

Clemson also produced the 2018 William V. Campbell Trophy winner (known colloquially as the "Academic Heisman") in Christian Wilkins and won the program's first AFCA Academic Achievement Award. Clemson repeated as AFCA Academic Achievement Award recipients in 2019, becoming the only school in the country to repeat and doing so while appearing in the national championship game in both seasons.

Swinney and Clemson's 2018 season was one for which statistics and superlatives accumulated in historic fashion. The Tigers became the first major college football team in the modern era (and the first since Penn in 1897) to finish a season with a 15-0 record.

The list of "firsts" was long and distinguished. Clemson became the first program to win four consecutive Atlantic Division titles, and with a 42-10 win against Pittsburgh in the ACC Championship Game, it became the first program to win four straight ACC titles outright.

Clemson's 15 wins included a school-record 12 against teams who finished with winning records. Clemson won by an average margin of 31.1 points per game, the best in the nation and the second-largest in school history, trailing only a 35.3-point average margin in 1900. Among the seasons it passed was a 30.4-point average margin in 1901, a season in which Clemson won one of its five games by a score of 122-0.

Clemson set school records in points (664) and total offense (7,718, also an ACC record). The defense held opponents to 13.1 points per game, leading the country in scoring defense for the first time in school history.

A critical point in the season came four games into the campaign. Following a 49-21 win at Georgia Tech in which true freshman quarterback Trevor Lawrence threw for four touchdowns in reserve, Swinney and the coaching staff elected to name Lawrence the starter, supplanting senior Kelly Bryant, who had led the Tigers to a 16-2 career record as a starter.

With Lawrence leading Swinney's Tigers, Clemson took flight. After a dramatic come-from-behind 27-23 win against Syracuse in which Lawrence exited the game with an injury, Clemson rattled off 10 consecutive wins of 20 points or more to conclude the season, including blowout wins of No. 3 Notre Dame in the Cotton Bowl and No. 1 Alabama in the College Football Playoff National Championship.

Seven players earned first or second-team All-America honors, including a school-record three players who collected consensus honors. The 2018 Tigers produced a team-record 18 All-ACC picks and became the first team to produce the ACC Player of the Year, ACC Offensive Player of the Year, ACC Defensive Player of the Year, ACC Offensive Rookie of the Year and ACC Coach of the Year in a season since Florida State in 1997.

Accolades also accumulated for Swinney, who earned his second career ACC Coach-of-the-Year honor and brought home the Woody Hayes Award as national coach of the year. Less than a week after winning the national title, he also won the Paul "Bear" Bryant Award, becoming the first three-time winner of the award. Including the 2018 Bryant and Hayes Awards, he has won national coach-of-the-year honors from at least one organization in five of the last nine years.

The 2018 season was preceded by a 2017 campaign in which Clemson was on a mission to prove that it was built to last. Swinney guided the team to a 12-2 record, an ACC title and a College Football Playoff berth despite having only six scholarship seniors and losing players who accounted for 77 percent of the offense during the 2016 national championship season.

While Clemson was ranked No. 5 in the preseason AP Poll, few expected the Tigers to be ranked No. 1 in both polls and the College Football Playoff ranking entering the bowl season. In fact, Clemson was not even the preseason choice to win the ACC Atlantic Division.

Despite a setback in the Sugar Bowl to the eventual national champion, Alabama, Clemson finished ranked No. 4 in both polls. He was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame following the season.

Clemson's school-record six wins over top-25 teams in 2017, also a national best, included a school-record four on opponents' home fields and five away from home. The defense, including three defensive linemen, featured four players who were named All-American, helping Clemson rank in the top four nationally in scoring defense (No. 2) and total defense (No. 4). Clemson led the ACC in the four major defensive categories (scoring, total, rushing, passing), a first in history.

The 2016 Tigers lived up to their hype after compiling a 14-1 record and earning a spot in the College Football Playoff for the second-straight year. Along the way, Clemson knocked off five top-25 foes.

Clemson defeated the top two teams in the national polls in consecutive games in the College Football Playoff at the end of the season. The Tigers blanked Ohio State, 31-0, in the Fiesta Bowl, the first shutout suffered by head coach Urban Meyer in his career and the first for Ohio State since 1993.

The Tigers then earned a rematch with No. 1 Alabama, and for the first time in school history, took down the top-ranked team in a second epic battle with the storied Crimson Tide program. Quarterback Deshaun Watson's touchdown pass to Hunter Renfrow with one second left on the clock gave Clemson a dramatic 35-31 victory in Tampa, Fla. Swinney received the Bear Bryant Award as national coach-of-the-year for the second consecutive season.

Swinney coached Watson to two record-setting seasons in 2015 and 2016. The two-time Heisman Trophy finalist became the first player in FBS history to total 4,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a season in 2015, and he followed by setting an ACC record with 41 passing touchdowns in 2016. Watson won both the Davey O'Brien Award and Manning Award in back-to-back seasons.

Swinney guided Clemson to the No. 1 national ranking in every College Football Playoff poll in 2015 and led the Tigers to their first national championship game appearance under the new format after his team defeated Oklahoma, 37-17, in the 2015 Orange Bowl. The Tigers led Alabama in the fourth quarter of the championship contest, but came up just short (45-40) in an epic game in Glendale, Ariz.

Following the team's 14-1 record and No. 2 final ranking, he was the recipient of 10 national and two ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors.

In 2015, a then-Tiger-record 17 players were named to one of three All-ACC teams, including all five starting offensive linemen for the first time in school history. In 2016, 15 players were honored, including a school-record three first-team All-ACC offensive line selections.

The 2012, 2013 and 2014 seasons were also noteworthy, with three top-15 final rankings.

With a 40-6 Russell Athletic Bowl victory over Oklahoma in 2014, Swinney became the first coach in history to win three bowl games in consecutive seasons over teams whose head coaches had previously won the national title. He upped that mark to five years in a row in 2016.

Clemson capped off the 2013 season with a thrilling 40-35 victory over No. 6 Ohio State in the Orange Bowl. Clemson had an 11-2 record after finishing 7-1 in ACC regular-season games. It marked Clemson's first back-to-back 11-win seasons in school history. For the fourth time in his first five full seasons as head coach, Swinney was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year in 2013.

The 2012 season (11-2) was a groundbreaking year for Swinney's Tigers when looking at the overall consistency of the program. The seven conference wins in the regular season were then a school record, while Clemson was co-champion of the ACC Atlantic Division.

With Clemson's thrilling 25-24 win over No. 7 LSU in the 2012 Chick-fil-A Bowl, the Tigers finished the season ranked No. 9 in the USA Today poll. It was Clemson's first top-10 finish in one of the two major polls since 1990. Clemson also reached the 11-win mark for the first time since its 1981 national championship season.

Swinney's 2011 squad, which ended the season ranked No. 22 in the nation, captured Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 when it beat No. 3 Virginia Tech, 38-10, in the ACC Championship Game in Charlotte, N.C. It gave Clemson its first 10-win season since 1990. For his efforts, Swinney was named Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 2011 to become the first Tiger head coach to win a national coach-of-the-year award since Ford in 1981.

In 2010, Swinney became just the second Tiger coach to lead Clemson to a bowl game in his first two full years as head coach, joining his predecessor, Tommy Bowden. The 2010 schedule was one of the most challenging in school history, as nine bowl teams were on the regular-season slate and two of the four non-conference opponents were ranked in the top 25.

In 2009, Swinney's first full season as head coach at Clemson, he led the Tigers to their first title of the ACC Atlantic Division. The Tigers came just six points short of winning their first ACC title in 18 years. Swinney was named ACC Coach of the Year by Sporting News and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year.

In October 2008, Swinney was named Clemson's interim head coach, replacing Bowden, who had been his position coach as a player at Alabama and was Clemson's head coach since 1999. He led the Tigers to a 4-2 record during the rest of the 2008 regular season, including a win over South Carolina in the regular-season finale to earn a Gator Bowl bid against Nebraska.

On Dec. 1, 2008, his interim tag was removed and he was named the program's head coach. At the time, there had been 28 interim head coaches at the FBS level since 1970, and those coaches had combined for a 26-86-2 record. Only one of those 28 interim coaches posted a winning record, and that was Swinney. When he was hired as head coach, he became just the second interim coach to be elevated to the head coach position at the same school during that time period.

Swinney hit the ground running in his first week as interim head coach, as he prepared for a 5-1 Georgia Tech team. He had to reorganize his staff and regroup his team and the fanbase in just five days. While the Tigers lost by four points, he accomplished many goals in that first week through his outstanding leadership. One of the most impressive demonstrations of unity came during the team's "Tiger Walk," which has since become a staple of Clemson's game day routine for both the team and fans.

Swinney has demonstrated his dedication to the community through Dabo's All In Team Foundation. Since 2009, the Swinney family and Dabo's All In Team Foundation have given more than $7.8 million back to communities and programs in the state. In its inaugural year, the foundation made the first contribution to the cancer fund established for former Boston College linebacker Mark Herzlich, and many schools followed its lead during the remainder of the season.

In 2021, the foundation distributed roughly $1.2 million in financial support to their core focus areas, with $800,000 of that being distributed to more than 200 deserving organizations and non-profits through the foundation's grant program. In 2019, the foundation awarded a record $1,082,000 in grant funding to more than 165 and raised $400,000 for breast cancer research and prevention during the organization's annual Ladies Clinic. The foundation's efforts went virtual in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020, as the organization's ALL IN Virtual Fundraising Event alone raised nearly $1 million for organizations and efforts in South Carolina.

Swinney was named as the honorary coach for the 2019 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team, an honor for which Watson, a former Good Works Team selection, returned to Clemson to surprise Swinney during a team meeting. In the spring of 2021, Swinney accepted the Uncommon Award from Pro Football Hall of Fame Coach Tony Dungy, who presents the honor annually to figures in football who "take the tough road, follow a higher calling and set a higher standard."

The 1993 Alabama graduate joined the Clemson staff prior to the 2003 season. In his first 19 years as an assistant or head coach, the Tigers finished in the top 25 of the polls 15 times and totaled 42 wins over top-25 teams.

Swinney coached his wide receiver position to a level of consistency that had not been seen previously at Clemson. He had a wideout finish first or second in the ACC in catches in five of his six seasons as an assistant coach. In his first season, he had three of the top-10 receivers in the conference, a first in Tiger history.

In his 19 seasons at Clemson, a Tiger wide receiver has earned All-ACC status in 17 of those campaigns, including a first- or second-team All-ACC selection (Derrick Hamilton, Airese Currie, Chansi Stuckey, Aaron Kelly, Jacoby Ford, Sammy Watkins, DeAndre Hopkins, Artavis Scott, Mike Williams, Tee Higgins, Amari Rodgers) in 16 of those 19 seasons. In 2021, three of his protégés (Williams, Higgins and Hunter Renfrow) recorded 1,000-yard seasons in the NFL, while another (Chansi Stuckey) served as wide receivers coach at Big 12 champion Baylor before accepting the wide receivers coach job at Notre Dame for 2022.

The Alabama native has a reputation as one of the top recruiters in the nation. In 2006, he was listed as the No. 5 recruiter in the nation by Rivals. He signed 38 players in his five recruiting seasons as an assistant coach and was a major reason Clemson's 2008 recruiting class was rated No. 2 in the nation by ESPN when he signed 11 players. Clemson's 2020 class finished as a consensus Top 3 class, earning the top ranking from ESPN, a No. 2 rank by Rivals and a No. 3 ranking in the 247 Composite.

When Swinney accepted the interim head coaching position at Clemson on Oct. 13, 2008, he described his feelings as "bittersweet," because he was taking over for Bowden, who had been his first position coach at Alabama in the 1989 season. He had also brought Swinney back to the coaching profession in 2003 and has had a profound effect on his life. Both had followed similar paths as players, as Bowden was a walk-on at West Virginia and Swinney was a walk-on at Alabama.

Swinney received a commerce & business administration degree from Alabama in 1993 after lettering three times (1990-92). A walk-on who went on to earn a scholarship, Swinney was a wide receiver on Alabama's 1992 national championship team. He was also named Academic All-SEC along with being an SEC Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll member in 1990 and 1992.

Along with his appearance in the 1993 Sugar Bowl, his Alabama teams played in the 1990 Sugar Bowl, 1991 Fiesta Bowl and 1991 Blockbuster Bowl. Both Sugar Bowl appearances came after winning the SEC title game.

After his playing career, he was a graduate assistant at Alabama from 1993-95. He received a master's degree in business administration from Alabama in 1995.

He became a full-time assistant coach at Alabama in February 1996 under head coach Gene Stallings and coached a total of five seasons there on a full-time basis. Swinney was assigned to coach the Crimson Tide's wide receivers and tight ends in 1996, a season that saw Alabama win the SEC West Division title. The following year, he solely coached the tight ends.

In 1998, he coached Alabama's wide receivers, a position he held for three years. At the end of 1999, Swinney coached the Crimson Tide in the 2000 Orange Bowl after winning the SEC Championship Game.

During his time at Alabama, Swinney was a part of six teams with double-digit wins, five top-10 finishes, one national title (1992), three SEC championships (1989,92,99) and five SEC West Division titles (1992,93,94,96,99) as a player and coach.

Swinney married the former Kathleen Bassett in 1994. They have three sons, Will, Drew and Clay. Will played for Clemson from 2017-21, appearing in 69 games and holding for 558 career kicking points while also scoring two touchdowns of his own. Drew and Clay are both members of the 2022 Tiger football team.

FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

WOODY McCORVEY

- CHIEF OF STAFF
- 21ST SEASON ON CLEMSON STAFF
- ALABAMA STATE '72

Woody McCorvey has been a significant part of the two greatest eras in Tiger football. In the 1980s he was on the staff of hall of fame coach Danny Ford, and helped Clemson to a 60-19-3 record, three ACC titles and four bowl wins. He was on the staff of five Clemson teams that finished in the final top 20 of the AP poll.

Now in his second stint at Clemson, Dabo Swinney would be the first to say how important he has been in contributing to Clemson's recent run of 11 consecutive 10-win seasons.

"He is my national security advisor," said Swinney. "My experience with him dates to my days as a player at Alabama when he was my position coach. He coached at Clemson in the 1980s under Danny Ford and knows all about our winning tradition."

The 2022 season is his 45th in college football as either a coach or an administrator. He returned to Clemson for the 2009 season, Swinney's first full year, and he has helped him bring the Tigers to a level of consistent excellence that culminated in national championships following the 2016 and 2018 seasons.

With Ford's induction in 2017, McCorvey has now worked for three coaches in the College Football Hall of Fame. He has also been in significant coaching roles with Gene Stallings and Phil Fulmer. He has worked for four national championship coaches in Ford, Fulmer, Stallings and Swinney.

Swinney has a 146-33 record as head coach since McCorvey joined his staff. That includes eight wins over top-10 teams in bowl games in the last 10 years. The Tigers have won seven ACC titles, eight division titles (plus an additional championship berth in a divisionless season in 2020) and posted 11 bowl wins in 13 years.

McCorvey serves as the primary liaison between Swinney and the athletic and IPTAY administrations. He also oversees the management of the football administrative offices and has served as a key point of contact for NFL administrators and personnel as Clemson has expanded its pipeline to the pros.

He supervises the football budget and works with the academic staff to oversee that important area. Prior to the NCAA suspending APR reporting in the COVID-19 pandemic, Clemson finished in the top-10 percent of all FBS programs in APR scores in nine of the previous 10 years, one of only three schools to make that claim.

As a Clemson wide receivers and tight ends coach from 1983-89, he recruited future Pro Bowlers Donnell Woolford and Chester McGlockton. He also coached NFL players Keith Jennings and K.D. Dunn.

McCorvey coached at the Division I level for 26 years and went to a bowl game 17 of those seasons. He coached or signed 36 players who went on to a professional football career as well.

McCORVEY'S COACHING EXPERIENCE

Year(s)	School	Location
1972-77	Tate High School	Pensacola, Fla.
1978	North Carolina Central	Durham, N.C.
1979-82	Alabama A&M	Huntsville, Ala.
1983-89	Clemson	Clemson, S.C.
1990-97	Alabama	Tuscaloosa, Ala.
1998	South Carolina	Columbia, S.C.
1999-04	Tennessee	Knoxville, Tenn.
2004-08	Mississippi State	Starkville, Miss.

From 1990-08, he coached in the SEC every year, including each of the last five seasons at Mississippi State, where he served as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator in addition to coaching the quarterbacks. He was a big reason it won eight games, including wins over Auburn, Alabama, and Mississippi, in 2007. He also coached 2010 NFL draft pick Anthony Dixon.

McCorvey coached at Tennessee for five years (1999-03). With him heading the running game, the Volunteers had a 46-14 record. He helped guide Tennessee to the 2000 Fiesta Bowl, 2001 Cotton Bowl, 2002 Citrus Bowl, and 2002 and 2003 Peach Bowls. Tennessee won three consecutive New Year's Day Bowl games from 2000-02 as well.

Under McCorvey's leadership, Tennessee maintained the school's reputation of having an outstanding rushing attack. The Volunteers led the SEC in rushing in 1999, averaging 191.3 yards per game. His work helped tailback Travis Stephens pace the SEC in rushing yards (1,464) in 2001.

One year prior, McCorvey helped tailback Travis Henry finish second in the league and 14th in the nation in rushing yards (1,314). Another of his protegés was Jamal Lewis, who finished in the top five on the Tennessee career rushing list and was the No. 5 overall pick of the 2000 NFL draft. Lewis had an All-Pro career in the NFL.

Prior to joining the staff at Tennessee, McCorvey worked one season at South Carolina, where he served as the wide receivers coach in 1998 under former Tiger assistant coach Brad Scott.

McCorvey took the South Carolina job following an eight-year stay at Alabama from 1990-97. He served seven seasons as its wide receivers coach and the 1996 campaign as offensive coordinator. He was the assistant head coach in 1997 as well.

Alabama had five top-25 final rankings in his tenure, including three seasons in the top five. The Crimson Tide won the 1992 national title with McCorvey serving as wide receivers coach and Swinney as one of his student-athletes. That season culminated with a 34-13 win over heavily-favored Miami (Fla.) in the Sugar Bowl. Current Clemson Director of Football Scouting Danny Pearman was also on that staff.

During the 1990-96 era, Alabama had a 70-16-1 record and played in six bowl games. With McCorvey at the controls of the offense in 1996, Alabama was 10-3, including a win over Michigan in the Outback Bowl.

Alabama's players flourished under his guidance. As offensive coordinator, running back Shaun Alexander established many school records and later went on to a Pro Bowl career with the Seattle Seahawks. In 1993, David Palmer established school records for catches and receiving yards along with earning first-team All-America honors. Palmer was third in the Heisman Trophy balloting, the highest finish in history for an Alabama player at the time.

From 1979-82, he served as an assistant coach at Alabama A&M and helped that program to the No. 6 rushing offense in Division II in 1981 after finishing 11th in the nation in scoring offense in 1980. McCorvey began his college coaching career at North Carolina Central in 1978.

McCorvey began his coaching career with a six-year stint (1972-77) at J.M. Tate Senior High School in Florida. A quarterback at Alabama State from 1968-71, McCorvey earned his bachelor's degree from Alabama State in 1972 and a master's degree from West Florida in 1977.

He was the recipient of the 2015 AFCA Outstanding Achievement Award for his contributions to college football. In 2013, he was on the Rose Bowl Advisory Committee and returned to that role in 2017. He was a member of the College Football Playoff Advisory Committee in 2014-15 as well.

In 2010, he was inducted into the Atmore (Ala.) Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame as part of a 2020 class that included Sylvester Croom, with whom he coached at Mississippi State. He added recognition as an Alabama Football Legend from the Camellia Bowl in 2021.

The Atmore, Ala. native is married to the former Ann Brown. The couple has a son, Marlon, daughter-in-law Brooke, and grandson, Beau.

He's turned down three or four linebacker jobs in the NFL for the last three years, and I kept him and just said, 'Hey, this is my plan. Just stay patient.' ... There's a reason those NFL guys have been trying to hire him. He's a very, very, very, very talented young coach with an incredibly bright future."
- Continued Swinney: "Wes has worked with the best of the best. He got his start with Ellis Johnson, and I worked with Ellis at Alabama. Ellis is one of the best. He worked with Kevin Steele; Kevin is one of the best. And then he's been around some great ones in the NFL. Spent time with Sylvester Croom as well. He and I [smiling] have both done a tour of duty with Bruce [Arians]... We've always had that connection, and Bruce has tried to take him back, but we were able to hang on to him. - In addition to serving as an offensive analyst, he served as assistant camp director during the 2018 and 2019 seasons.

- Served as an added resource for a staff that produced Clemson's illustrious line of wide receivers while in a support role. During his time as a graduate assistant and offensive analyst from 2014-19, Clemson produced five receivers — Artavis Scott (2014,15,16), Mike Williams (2014,16), Deon Cain (2017), Hunter Renfrow (2017,18), Tee Higgins (2018,19) — who earned 10 All-ACC selections.

- Said Head Coach Dabo Swinney of Grisham's hiring as the full-time wide receivers coach: "I'm just super excited for Grish. There's never been a guy more prepared to be the receivers coach at Clemson than Tyler Grisham. He had a great four-year career here. Clemson fans certainly loved him. He had a lot of big moments and went on and grinded out a four-year NFL career... He's ready and is going to do an unbelievable job for us. He's going to be special."

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

GRAHAM NEFF

- DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
- 1ST FULL SEASON AS DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS AT CLEMSON
- GEORGIA TECH '06

Graham Neff was named Clemson's 14th director of athletics on Dec. 23, 2021 in the midst of his ninth year at Clemson.

Neff has been in senior leadership positions within Clemson athletics since 2013, including as chief financial officer and director of capital projects prior to his most recent role as deputy director of athletics. Neff has helped oversee the build and financing of more than $200 million in facility improvements, aided in the continued development of IPTAY and served as a sport administrator for football and men's basketball.

Neff works consistently with key university stakeholders, including the university Executive Leadership Team, Board of Trustees, IPTAY Board of Directors, Athletics Council and several university committees and appointments.

During his time as a sport supervisor, the football program won two national championships and the men's basketball program made two NCAA Tournament appearances, including a Sweet 16 run in 2018. Academically, Clemson's graduation success rate has been above 91 percent for seven consecutive years, and student-athlete total GPA has been above 3.0 for nine straight semesters.

Neff has helped develop several key areas of the department, including the financial philosophy, fundraising, student-athlete welfare and external operations management. In 2019, he was named one of Sports Business Daily's Power Players.

Prior to his role as Deputy AD, he joined Clemson in 2013 as associate athletic director of finance & facilities. Before Clemson, Neff served two-plus years in several senior administrative roles with Middle Tennessee Athletics, with emphasis in finance, facilities and external operations.

A civil engineering graduate of Georgia Tech in 2006, he served as a student manager for Head Coach Paul Hewitt and the men's basketball program, advancing to a Final Four in 2004. Neff worked in the Financial Advisory Services group at Deloitte and Touche from 2006-08 prior to returning to a finance and ticketing role at the Georgia Tech Athletic Association. He earned an MBA from Georgia Tech in 2010.

Neff and his wife, Kristin, have three sons, Grady and twins Emmett and Nolan.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

Clemson President Jim Clements (Dec. 23, 2021)

"Our department of athletics has a long-standing tradition of success that continues today, most recently with another national championship for our men's soccer team, and a deep commitment to student-athlete development. Graham Neff has played an integral role every step of the way. Graham is a highly sought-after athletics administrator and a brilliant and selfless leader and we're thrilled about his vision for Clemson athletics."

ACC Commissioner Jim Phillips (Dec. 23, 2021)

"Graham will be an excellent addition to our outstanding group of ACC athletic directors. He is already well-versed in the culture of Clemson University, the ACC and college athletics, which will serve all entities well. Congratulations to Graham, his wife, Kristin, and their entire family."

ALLEN N. REEVES FOOTBALL COMPLEX

Head Coach Dabo Swinney and the Tiger staff sought to build "the forever home of Clemson football" when envisioning what would become the Allen N. Reeves Football Complex, which opened in January 2017 and remains among the gold standards of performance facilities, not only in college football, but in all of sports.

While discussion about the $55 million facility covering in excess of 142,000 square feet often centers around its bells and whistles, by design, it offers unparalleled functionality. During the facility's ideation, Clemson staff toured more than 35 sports performance facilities, pulling the best, most innovative ideas from every location and using the gleaned insight to create what 247Sports ranked as the nation's No. 1 facility as recently as 2021.

Despite national praise for the young facility, Clemson has not rested in its pursuit of making the facility the nation's standard-bearer. Completed in 2022, Clemson renovated the facility with its "100 Yards of Wellness" project, representing the natural evolution of Clemson football's long-time commitment to student-athlete health and wellness. By literally and figuratively breaking down walls, the space combined Clemson's athletic training and rehabilitation expertise with its continued innovation in active recovery and applied science.

Beyond the athletic training and rehabilitation offerings, the facility includes the Clemson Applied Science Lab, which under the purview of Director of Applied Science Dr. Alex Bina, continues to keep the program at the forefront of the recovery and sports science movement.

The sports science lab in CASL includes Sparta Science force plates to judge force efficiency, a DARI motion capture lab to quantify functional movement, a Trazer augmented reality station to measure change of direction, NordBords to gauge hamstring strength and a Senaptec sensory station to quantify cognitive performance, decision making and visual acuity.

The recovery center portion of the facility features a cryotherapy chamber for muscle recovery, a sensory deprivation pod that houses 1,200 pounds of Epsom salt dissolved in water at skin temperature to remove athletes from light, sound and some gravitational force, two infrared hyperthermic cocoon pods for far-infrared heat therapy and vibrational massage, four massage chairs, percussive massage guns and dedicated tables and space for Normatec compressive sleeves to supplement the Normatec air pressure massage systems provided to each player prior to the season.

Upon entry to the main lobby of Allen N. Reeves Football Complex, the first thing visitors see are national championship trophies sitting in front of a video screen flanked by massive trophy cases housing additional hardware from Clemson's history. The lobby also displays a scaled replica of Howard's Rock and the Hill from Memorial Stadium, which also includes a button to play audio of Brent Musburger describing college football's grandest entrance prior to Clemson's game against Georgia in 2013.

Off the lobby to the right is the home of P.A.W. Journey, which cultivates leadership on the team through three main pillars of personal growth, life skills and professional development under the guidance of former All-American Jeff Davis. A corridor near that area leads to the Paw Bistro, the best-in-class dining facility, whose cuisine is cited by many current and former players as their favorite part of the facility.

Adjacent to the dining area are the outdoor player village and indoor player lounge. The outdoor area spanning more than an acre includes a nine-hole miniature golf course, an artificial-surface wiffle ball diamond, sand volleyball facility, a horseshoe pit, wading pool with a Tiger Paw monument, outdoor kitchen and a lounge area with a 20-foot video screen.

The indoor player lounge is a player and visitor favorite, as it is complete with a two-lane bowling alley, Pop-A-Shot, three different video game console centers, multiple ping-pong and pool tables and a shuffleboard table. Adjacent to the ping-pong tables is a golf simulator, where players can play Augusta National, St. Andrews and Pebble Beach along with many other great golf courses from around the world.

Down the corridor from the golf simulator is a recently expanded and renovated barber shop with a pedicure station and massage chairs. Next to the barber shop is the nap room, designed to offer student-athletes a designated space to combat one of the largest obstacles for the mental health of young people...lack of sleep.

Clemson's enormous weight room covers 23,000 square feet and was the country's largest football-only weight room at the time it was built. The entire team can work out at once in the area that includes 20 inlay platforms, numerous machines, fatbells, kettlebells and dumbbells, as well as a well-equipped cardio deck overlooking the lifting area. It also houses the offices of Paul Harrington and the performance nutrition staff as well as a nutritional fuel bar.

The weight room connects to the Betty Sheppard Poe & William Maxwell Poe Indoor Football Facility, an 80,000-square-foot, $10 million structure. It includes a full-sized synthetic turf field, raised video platforms, a game-ready scoreboard, four playclocks, a videoboard and a booming sound system. The facility has enabled Clemson to continue its preparation despite inclement weather.

Prior to the complex's construction, large tubs were brought to the outside wall of the indoor football facility, as players traded off getting into the tubs. Now, there is one large horizontal 47-degree cold tub that can handle 61 players at any one time, making the process much more efficient. It sits adjacent to Clemson's state-of-the-art training room that also features a lap pool and four therapy pools.

The second floor houses offices and meeting spaces for Clemson football personnel, including Swinney's office is in the corner with accrued career memorabilia that serves for invited guests as a de facto museum of Clemson football and the future College Football Hall of Famer's career journey.

The second floor is also the home of Clemson football's video department, a multi-screened facility that rivals many broadcast networks. Previously, the adjacent area served as a studio that produced much of @ClemsonFB's award-winning social media content and served as the setting for many of Clemson's national media interviews as well as the home of the bureau cam for Clemson's appearances on ACC Network. Starting in the winter of 2022, those functions will operate out of the new Clemson Athlete Branding Institute.

The second floor contains a meeting room for each position and the team meeting room that has seats for 180 (up from 158 for the team meeting room at Memorial Stadium). It also features a movie theater with 20 lounge chairs.

But perhaps most famously, connecting the second floor meeting spaces down to the locker room, weight room and practice fields is Clemson's renowned slide, which represents the most efficient means to getting 135 players from meetings to practice in a timely manner.

P.A.W. JOURNEY

The Clemson football program is constantly preparing its scholar-athletes for life through the innovative and empowering program called P.A.W. Journey. P.A.W., which stands for "passionate about winning," positions Clemson scholar-athletes to maintain a continually competitive posture towards all aspects of their lives.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney consistently emphasizes to his scholar-athletes that football creates options and cultivates skills that each young leader uses for a lifetime. P.A.W. Journey serves as a guiding light to fulfill that vision through its daily work and the long-standing relationships it produces.

P.A.W. Journey holistically develops football scholar-athletes through personal growth, life skills and career and professional development. The pillars, Striped, C.U. in Life, 5th Quarter and the newly created pillar Overtime, work harmoniously together to develop the whole man.

Striped intentionally identifies and fosters each individual's sense of purpose and promotes maturity throughout his leadership development. This pillar helps leaders build character through, among other ways, overcoming challenges to ultimately achieve strength and maturity.

C.U. in Life equips the young men with transferable skills and provides opportunities to serve in domestic and global impacts. Initiatives within this pillar teach scholar-athletes critical life skills necessary to earn respect and become impactful men of society.

The 5th Quarter pillar instills practical professionalism through the ability to enhance business acumen, expand networks and gain purposeful employment. The pillar ensures that each leader serves as an example in the marketplace through internships, shadowing opportunities and developmental workshops.

To address the needs of its alumni, P.A.W. Journey introduced its newest pillar, Overtime. Serving as a way to connect and remain engaged with Clemson, Overtime demonstrates the lifetime commitment of the program to its leaders and Tiger football alumni base.

P.A.W. Journey is unique to Clemson and is an influential leader in the player development industry. P.A.W. Journey's distinction and dedicated personnel, led by Jeff Davis, Rashard Hall, Jeuel Davis, Antoine McClain and Karli Welch, engage scholar-athletes from the time they step foot on campus through their graduation and beyond.

"These opportunities aren't available everywhere," said current cornerback Malcolm Greene. "The way this program focuses on the man we become and how it creates opportunities we have is amazing."

The praise for experiences that holistically develop each young man personally and professionally were further echoed by former tight end Braden Galloway.

"P.A.W. Journey has been one of the most impactful programs I have been a part of during my journey at Clemson. It has taught me not only how to be a successful football player, but how to be a successful entrepreneur and businessman.

"The opportunities are unlimited within the program and the connections that you make from being an ambassador help you in ways that you do not even expect!"

Both young men served as P.A.W. Journey ambassadors, a leadership group within the Tiger program that discusses the needs of the team and creates opportunities alongside the P.A.W. Journey staff. Greene and Galloway have also taken advantage of those opportunities mentioned, as both Tiger scholar-athletes completed micro-internships with various companies across the country to discover their abilities and passions in the workforce.

The program not only encourages men to hone their skills and passions, it empowers them to lead. While no two journeys look the same, the ability to lead with confidence and conviction grows each day with our scholar-athletes.

"I have grown as a leader, learned a lot about myself and taken advantage of different opportunities P.A.W. Journey has provided," said former punter Will Spiers. "The people in the program make it what it is, and they do a great job pursuing us."

Spiers was not only an anchor for the Tiger team, but also demonstrated outstanding servant leadership through organizing SAAC food drives, fundraising for Lift4Life, serving abroad for the 2019 Thailand trip and regularly volunteering in his local community among other activities.

P.A.W. Journey has recognized and responded to the needs of an ever-growing and sophisticated scholar-athlete. Through changing landscapes, the expectations of what it means to be a Clemson Tiger will continue to rise and be met with the empowerment afforded through P.A.W. Journey.

CLEMSON APPLIED SCIENCE LAB

Clemson Applied Science Lab (CASL) has a very simple mission, "Carry out the vision of the head football coach by providing confidence to student-athletes that their physical and technical development is constantly advancing."

Director of Applied Science Dr. Alex Bina has done everything in his power to ensure that those words ring true and Clemson student-athletes are given every possible opportunity to both improve performance and physically recover, using any and all modern technologies available.

The two key focuses of CASL are maximizing performance and expediting recovery.

The ultimate goal is quantifying body performance. Once the body and its abilities are put into numerical terms, it becomes considerably easier to determine what needs to be improved and the best possible route to enhance it.

Throughout the yearly training cycle, athletes are evaluated using technologies that leverage motion capture, force plates, sensory station, augmented reality, force transducers and GPS sensors in order to quantify athletic development. Through this process, an athlete's body composition, movement efficiency, vertical jump performance, cognitive reasoning skills, hamstring strength and on-field speed become clear to both coach and athlete alike.

By building a database of the "Clemson Effect" on athlete development and performance, the Clemson football staff can continue to build championship teams for future generations of Tiger players.

Not only does CASL provide coaches and student-athletes with quantitative data with which they can analyze performance, it also is a key resource for student-athletes to use during the recovery process. Bina stressed that quick and healthy recovery is the priority of the staff at CASL.

The path to success in recovery is a two-step process. The first is communication and collaboration between the student-athlete and his strength & conditioning coach, nutrition and sports medicine experts and his sports psychologist. The second is using the established baseline scores of the student-athlete as targets for return-to-play protocols and as a foundation for injury-prevention training.

Clemson Applied Science Lab concerns itself heavily with the mental aspect of sports performance. Student-athletes get access to a sensory-deprivation float tank, which eliminates all external stimuli and gives the closest estimation of "true peace" possible. This also improves sleep quality, which is a large part of both mental and physical performance. Along with sensory deprivation tanks, CASL utilizes cryotherapy to further stimulate recovery.

Bina has always been interested in bioengineering, which is the degree he earned from Penn State. Bina, who received his Ph.D. from Clemson, is implementing a simple plan, which is to "learn how the body works as a machine and put students in a position to manipulate that machine to improve recovery and performance."

Tiger players have been responding very positively to the work that Bina and CASL have done for them, and as a program, Clemson has seen tremendous success in terms of both its players' short and long-term recoveries.

Bina wants to ensure that "everything possible is being done for them" in order to get them back to their peak performance as healthily and as quickly as possible.

As far as long-term and overarching goals and aspirations for CASL, Bina offered the following.

"When we talk about, 'Best is the Standard,' that means in all ways possible. This is just another piece of that puzzle."

RUNNING DOWN THE HILL

What has been described by television commentator Brent Musburger as "the most exciting 25 seconds in college football" from a color and pageantry standpoint actually started out as a matter-of-fact entrance, mainly because of necessity.

The first 20,000 seats in Memorial Stadium were built and ready for use before the 1942 season, less than a year after Pearl Harbor was bombed and the U.S. was drawn into World War II.

The shortest entry into Memorial Stadium was a short walk down Williamson Road from Fike Fieldhouse's dressing rooms to a gate at the top of the Hill, located behind the east endzone. There were no dressing facilities inside the west endzone...there was only a giant clock, where the hands turned, and a scoreboard that was operated by hand.

Players would dress in Fike Fieldhouse, walk down Williamson Road, enter at the gate underneath where the scoreboard now stands and jog down the Hill for their warmup exercises. There was little fanfare, no cannon shot fired, no Tiger Paw flag and no "Tiger Rag" played...just the team making its entrance and lining up to do the side-straddle hop. That is the way things went for the next 25 years.

In 1964 or 1965, Sam Jones (Clemson class of 1919) made a trip to California. He stopped at a spot in Death Valley, Calif. and picked up a white flint rock. He presented the rock to Head Coach Frank Howard as being from Death Valley, California to Death Valley, South Carolina.

The rock laid on Howard's office floor in Fike Fieldhouse for months. One day, he was cleaning up his office and told Gene Willimon (IPTAY executive secretary) to "take this rock and throw it over the fence or out in the ditch...do something with it, but get it out of my office!"

Willimon did not think that was the way a rock should be treated. After all, it had been brought over 1,900 miles by a very sincere Tiger fan.

By the mid 1960s, Memorial Stadium was living up to its moniker ("Death Valley") because of the number of Tiger wins that had been recorded there. Actually, the name was first used by Lonnie McMillan, head coach at Presbyterian during the 1940s.

McMillan and the other Blue Hose coaches before him opened each season by playing at Clemson. Seldom scoring (24 shutouts in 39 games) and with only three wins and four ties, his teams were getting "killed" by the Tigers regularly.

In 1948, McMillan made the remark to the press that he was taking his team to play Clemson in "Death Valley." An occasional reference to Memorial Stadium by that name could be heard for the next four years, but when Howard started calling it "Death Valley" in the 1950s, the name took off like wildfire. Clemson celebrated its 80th year in the "Valley" in 2021 with a 6-0 home record and its fifth straight undefeated home campaign.

But getting back to Howard's Rock.

It was mounted on a pedestal at the top of the Hill on the east side of the stadium. It was unveiled Sept. 24, 1966, when Clemson played Virginia. The Tigers trailed by 18 points with 17 minutes left and came back to win 40-35 on a 75-yard pass from Jimmy Addison to Jacky Jackson in the fourth quarter. That was quite a debut for Howard's Rock.

The team members started rubbing Howard's Rock prior to running down the Hill on Sept. 23, 1967, a day when Clemson defeated Wake Forest 23-6.

Prior to running down the Hill, Howard told his players, "If you're going to give 110 percent, you can rub that Rock. If you're not, keep your filthy hands off it!"

Howard told of the incident the following day on his television show, and the story became legend.

When Hootie Ingram succeeded Howard as head coach in 1970, he made the logical decision that the team would make its final entrance out of the new dressing room in the west endzone.

In all home games in 1970 and 1971 and the first four games of 1972 when the Tigers did not run down the Hill, their combined record was 6-9.

The seniors, led by Ben Anderson, decided to come down the Hill prior to the South Carolina game, the 1972 finale. The result, in a cold, freezing rain, was a 7-6 victory when Jimmy Williamson knocked down a two-point conversion attempt, which preserved the narrow win.

Clemson has made the entrance before every home game since 1942, except for the years mentioned and the first game of 1973 (421 times entering 2022).

After final warmups, the team gathers back in its dressing room under the west endzone stands for its final pregame instructions. Ten minutes prior to kickoff, the team boards three buses, rides around behind the north stands to the east endzone and disembarks to the top of the Hill behind Howard's Rock.

At the appointed time, the cannon booms, and led by a giant Tiger Paw flag carried by cheerleaders and Rally Cats, the band forms two lines for the team to run between and strikes up "Tiger Rag." The frenzy starts in all sincerity and usually lasts three hours.

It is a tradition that has inspired Clemson players for many years. USA Today agreed, as it rated it the best entrance in the nation in 2017.

MEMORIAL STADIUM

Clemson's Memorial Stadium has been held in high esteem for many years. Whether it be players from the 1940s and 1950s, opposing players from the 1970s and 1980s or even professional players in the 1990s, the ambiance of this special setting is what college football is all about.

Clemson has finished in the top 20 in the country in average home attendance for 41 straight seasons. Clemson ranked third in the country and first in the ACC in total attendance in 2020, and led the conference (and finished 13th in the nation) in average attendance in 2021.

The storied edifice added to its legend when the first meeting of father-and-son head coaches (Bowden Bowl I) took place before a record crowd of 86,092 fans in 1999. The legend was further enhanced in 2021, when the Tigers recorded a perfect 6-0 home record to extend their home winning streak to a school-record and national-best 34 games, the 15th-longest streak in FBS history. Since the advent of the CFP prior to the 2014 season, Clemson is 53-1 at home, the highest home winning percentage in the country.

In 2017, StadiumJourney.com rated Memorial Stadium as having the No. 10 stadium experience in the nation for all sports and No. 1 for college football. The facility's mystique is derived from its many traditions, which date to its opening in the 1942 season, the legendary games and players and Clemson's corresponding rate of success. Entering 2022, the Tigers have totaled 328 wins in 80 years and have won 75.9 percent of the contests (328-102-7). Visiting defending national champions are 0-3 all-time at Memorial Stadium.

The stadium has definitely been good to the Tigers, but it was constructed against the advice of at least one coach. Before Jess Neely left for Rice after the 1939 season, he gave Clemson a message.

"Don't ever let them talk you into building a big stadium," he said. "Put about 10,000 seats behind the YMCA. That's all you'll ever need."

Instead of following Neely's advice, Clemson officials decided to build the new stadium in a valley on the western part of campus. The place took some clearing, as there were many trees, but luckily there were no hedges.

The crews went to work, clearing, cutting, pouring and forming. On Sept. 19, 1942, Memorial Stadium opened with Clemson defeating Presbyterian College 32-13. Those 20,000 seats installed for the opener would soon grow.

When the original part of the stadium was built in the early 1940s, much of the work was done by scholarship athletes, including football players. The first staking out of the stadium was done by two members of the football team, A.N. Cameron and Hugh Webb. Webb returned to Clemson years later to be an architecture professor and Cameron went on to become a civil engineer in Louisiana.

The construction of the stadium did not proceed without problems. One afternoon during the clearing of the land, a young player proudly announced that he was not allergic to poison oak. He then proceeded to attack the poison oak with a swing blade, throwing the plants to and fro. The next day, the boy was swollen twice his size and was hospitalized.

There are many other stories about the stadium, including one that Frank Howard put a chew of tobacco in each corner as the concrete was poured.

Howard said that the seeding of the grass caused a few problems.

"About 40 people and I laid sod on the field," he said. "After three weeks on July 15, we had only gotten about halfway through.

"I told them that it had taken us three weeks to get that far and I would give them three more weeks' pay for however long it took to finish. I also told them we would have 50 gallons of ice cream when we got through.

"After that, it took them three days to do the rest of the field. Then we sat down in the middle of the field and ate up that whole 50 gallons."

Howard said on the day of the first game in the stadium, "The gates were hung at 1 p.m., and we played at 2 p.m." But that would be all of the construction for a while.

Then in 1958, 18,000 sideline seats were added, and in 1960, 5,658 west endzone seats were added in response to increasing attendance. With the large east endzone ("Green Grass" section), this expansion increased capacity to 53,000.

Later, upper decks were added to each side of the stadium as crowds swelled, the first in 1978 and the second in 1983. It increased capacity to over 80,000, which makes it one of the largest on-campus stadiums in the country. In 2006, the WestZone was added, an area that contains locker rooms, offices, a student-athlete enrichment center and luxury club level that holds over 1,000 seats.

The effect that inflation has had can be dramatically seen in the differences in stadium construction. The original part of Memorial Stadium was built at a cost of only $125,000, or $6.25 per seat. Memorial Stadium's newest upper deck was finished in 1983 at a cost of $13.5 million, or $866 per seat.

In 2019, the Clemson University Board of Trustees approved stadium plans to improve campus connectivity, enhance fan experience and add new premium seating opportunities. The proposal included a new videoboard measuring 126 feet wide by 57 feet tall (7,166 sq. ft.), or nearly five times the current board's surface area, as well as a new sound system and LED stadium lighting (renderings included below). Phase I of those renovations were completed in the summer of 2022.

Through the years, Memorial Stadium has become known as "Death Valley" across the country. It was tagged by Presbyterian College Head Coach Lonnie McMillian during the late 1940s. After bringing his teams to Clemson for many years and getting whipped, he said the place was like "Death Valley." A few years later, the name stuck.

In 1974, the playing surface was named Frank Howard Field for the legendary coach because of his long service and dedication to Clemson University.

Luckily, it wasn't built behind the YMCA.

IPTAY

IPTAY, founded in 1934, was one of the first scholarship fundraising organization in college athletics. Its roots trace back to Oct. 16, 1931 following a surprising 6-0 football loss against The Citadel.

After the game, Captains Frank Jervey and Pete Heffner along with Head Coach Jess Neely and Assistant Coach Joe Davis met in a car outside the stadium in Florence, S.C. to discuss various ways Clemson could establish its football program to a competitive status.

Shortly after the meeting, Dr. Rupert Fike offered his help after corresponding with Jervey. Neely believed he could run a successful football team if he was provided a $10,000-a-year increase in scholarships.

Initially, Jervey called for members to pay $30 a year, but Fike recommended a smaller amount of money, which he believed would lead to more members joining. Fike charged 100 people to step forward and pay $10 a year, which is where the name IPTAY (I Pay Ten A Year) originated.

In 1934, the first year of IPTAY, over $1,600 was raised. Some donors negotiated payments in the form of bartering because of the Great Depression. Milk, sweet potatoes, turnip greens and other goods were accepted in an attempt to build a solid membership base.

However, the hard work of Fike and his colleagues began to pay off during the 1939 season, as the Tigers went to their first bowl game, the 1940 Cotton Bowl, where they beat Boston College 6-3 and finished in the top 25 of the AP poll. Coincidentally, IPTAY reached Neely's $10,000 goal for the first time in 1939.

In more recent years, IPTAY's growth of support for Clemson student-athletes has continued to grow. In addition to athletic scholarships, IPTAY also provides funding for new and upgraded facilities, strength & conditioning, nutrition services, life skills and more. IPTAY is also a strong supporter of Tiger Band through support of new uniforms and travel expenses.

IPTAY is considered by many to be the father of athletic fundraising. It was the first organization in the nation to build and fund an academic support facility built solely for educational support of student-athletes.

Vickery Hall opened in 1991 and established itself as a nationally-recognized program for student-athlete support. The program moved to the Nieri Family Student-Athlete Enrichment Center at the west endzone of Memorial Stadium in 2017.

The IPTAY Collegiate Club, started in 1997, continues to be the model student fundraising organization in the country. Additionally, the IPTAY Tiger Cub Club allows children to be members of IPTAY at a young age. The IPTAY REP program continues to be a leadership group that grows the IPTAY organization through its role as volunteer annual fundraisers.

IPTAY introduced the endowment of positions program under former Executive Director George Bennett. IPTAY implemented the program in 1994 during the 85th-birthday celebration for former Clemson Head Coach Frank Howard. The first endowment honored Howard, who coached the Tigers for 39 seasons and established much of Clemson football's storied traditions.

The Riggs giving level, established in 2015, is IPTAY's highest annual donation level. IPTAY, led by CEO Davis Babb, has expanded its organizational service to move toward a broader scope of full service. This includes capital gifts, improved marketing plans, estate planning and increasing our membership through our IPTAY representative program.

For more information on how to support IPTAY and Clemson University student-athletes, call the McCarter Family IPTAY Center at 1-800-CLEMSON or visit IPTAY online at ClemsonTigers.com/IPTAY.

THE McCARTER FAMILY IPTAY CENTER OPENED AT MEMORIAL STADIUM IN 2019.

GAME 1

GEORGIA	10
CLEMSON	3

SEPT. 4, 2021
BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM • CHARLOTTE, N.C.

No. 3 Clemson and No. 5 Georgia played only the fourth season opener between two AP Top 5 teams since 2000, as Georgia won a defensive slugfest with the Tigers, 10-3, at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte.

James Skalski finished with a game-high 14 tackles as Clemson held Georgia's offense to just three points. The lone touchdown of the contest came in the second quarter, when quarterback DJ Uiagalelei threw his first career interception to snap his interception-free streak of 128 consecutive passes, which Georgia's Christopher Smith returned 74 yards for a touchdown.

Clemson's stout defense allowed only 256 total yards. The 10 points surrendered also marked the eighth time in history that Clemson held an AP Top 5 opponent to 10 or fewer points. It was Clemson's first loss when holding an opponent fewer than 23 points since 2010.

Clemson was led offensively by wide receiver Joseph Ngata, who finished the game with six catches for 110 yards, and quarterback DJ Uiagalelei, who was 19-for-37 with 178 yards passing. Ngata recorded his first career 100-yard game.

Clemson was hampered offensively by a 7-1 deficit in sacks. The Tigers ultimately got on the board with 9:08 left in the fourth quarter on a 22-yard field goal from B.T. Potter.

True freshman guard Marcus Tate and true freshman safety Andrew Mukuba both started, marking only the second time since 1973 that Clemson has had two true freshmen start a season opener (tight end Jeff Wells and center James Farr in 1980).

The loss concluded Clemson's streak of 127 consecutive games since losing back-to-back contests, the longest such streak in ACC history.

A stadium full of 78,609 fans gathered to celebrate Clemson's first home contest of the season, as well as tributes to 9/11 first responders and C.J. DJ Uiagalelei finished the day 14-for-24 for 171 yards and a touchdown while also scampering for 23 yards and two touchdowns on five carries. Will Shipley led the Tigers' ground game, carrying the ball 80 yards on eight carries for two touchdowns. Thirteen different players caught a pass, led by Justyn Ross, who scored his first touchdown since the 2019 ACC Championship Game vs. Virginia prior to missing the 2020 season.

Clemson's defense held South Carolina State to 235 total yards of offense and held an opponent without an offensive touchdown for the second-straight game. Ruke Orhorhoro and Jeremiah Trotter, Jr. tied for the team lead in tackles with five each, while Trotter led the team in solo tackles with four. Clemson tallied one sack on the day but combined for 10 tackles for loss.

The bulk of the Tigers' offense came in the first quarter, when Clemson put up 28 consecutive points in the opening frame. The Tigers jumped out to a 35-0 lead with just under 7:00 left in the second quarter, before the Bulldogs got on the board just before half with a 27-yard field goal.

GAME 3

GEORGIA TECH	8
CLEMSON	14

SEPT. 18, 2021
MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

Clemson freshman running back Will Shipley scored two touchdowns as No. 6 Clemson Tigers used a late defensive stand to hold on for a 14-8 victory over Georgia Tech. The victory was the Tigers' 30th consecutive home victory, the 24th home winning streak of 30 or more games in FBS history.

The game saw a one hour and 52 minute lightning delay with 0:32 to play in the first half, spanning 5:03 p.m. to 6:55 p.m., including an observed halftime.

After Shipley's first touchdown in the first quarter, Georgia Tech kept the Tigers close throughout, getting on the board first with a field goal after the lightning delay. The Jackets scored all eight of their points after the delay, and recovered an onside kick with 1:19 to play in the game and the Tigers ahead by eight. However, the Clemson defense held as the Yellow Jackets were stopped on fourth-and-goal at the two-yard line, marking a third straight game for Clemson without surrendering a touchdown on defense.

The Yellow Jackets added two final points on a safety with 0:07 seconds to play in the contest.

Shipley scored the lone touchdown in the first half on a three-yard run that capped an eight-play 39-yard drive, and his second touchdown came in the fourth quarter on another three-yard run that capped a 14-play 66-yard drive.

Brent Cimaglia would make two field goals of 22 yards for Georgia Tech.

With his two rushing touchdowns in the game, Shipley became the first Clemson player to rush for multiple touchdowns in consecutive games as a true freshman since Travis Etienne in 2017. He finished the night with 21 carries for 88 yards and two touchdowns.

GAME 4

CLEMSON	21	2OT
NC STATE	27

SEPT. 25, 2021
CARTER-FINLEY STADIUM • RALEIGH, N.C.

No. 9 Clemson fell, 27-21, to NC State in double overtime. Clemson mounted a late touchdown drive to force overtime and led briefly in the extra session before NC State halted the Tigers on 4th-and-5 in double overtime after a touchdown.

DJ Uiagalelei started the scoring for the Tigers with a 32-yard strike to Justyn Ross, who leaped and toe-tapped in the back of the end zone. The Wolfpack answered two drives later when Devin Leary hit Emeka Emezie on a 17-yard score. Both teams remained scoreless until midway through the third quarter, when Leary hit Devin Carter to give the Wolfpack a 14-7 lead with 9:19 to play.

The Tigers answered with 10:52 to play in the fourth quarter, when Will Shipley took a handoff five yards to tie the score at 14-14. NC State kicker Christopher Dunn missed a potential game-winning 39-yard field goal wide left as time expired in regulation.

Clemson scored first in the extra session when Uiagalelei connected with Ross on a 9-yard post route. The Wolfpack answered on the ensuing possession when Leary connected with Thayer Thomas for a 2-yard touchdown.

NC State then notched the eventual game-winner when Leary and Carter connected for a 22-yard strike in the back corner of the end zone before an NC State stop on the ensuing Clemson possession.

Baylon Spector led the Tigers defense with 19 tackles, surpassing Spencer Shuey's 18 tackles against Georgia in 2013 for the most by a Clemson player in a single game under Dabo Swinney. Andrew Mukuba and R.J. Mickens also had double-digit tackles; both players had 10 stops.

MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

Placekicker B.T. Potter accounted for 13 points, hitting all four of his field goal attempts and adding an extra point to help No. 25 Clemson hold on to a 19-13 win over Boston College.

Defensively, the Tigers tallied nine tackles for loss, four sacks and forced three turnovers, including K.J. Henry pouncing on a fumble with 49 seconds remaining deep in Clemson territory to secure the win.

Running back Kobe Pace got the Tigers on the board first with a 59-yard touchdown run in the first quarter, part of his career-high 125 rushing yards and 210 all-purpose yards.

The rest of Clemson's scoring came from Potter, who made field goals of 18, 35, 40 and 42 yards to tie his career high of four field goals set in 2020 at Notre Dame.

The Tigers held a 13-6 halftime lead after Boston College scored on two field goals by Connor Lytton. The Eagles would score their lone touchdown of the game on a 3-yard run by Patrick Garwo on their opening drive of the second half to tie the score, the first rushing touchdown surrendered by Clemson in 2021.

The last two of Potter's four field goals gave Clemson a 19-13 lead with a little more than four minutes to play. The Tigers stopped Boston College with 2:14 to play on fourth down, but went three-and-out on the ensuing possession. The Eagles then drove deep into Clemson territory. On 2nd-and-10 from the 11-yard line, a wild snap got past Boston College quarterback Dennis Grosel. Henry fell on the loose ball to give possession back to Clemson and all but end the contest and give Clemson the homecoming victory.

SYRACUSE	14

OCT. 15, 2021
CARRIER DOME • SYRACUSE, N.Y.

B.T. Potter's 40-yard field goal with 9:22 remaining proved to be the difference, as Clemson held on to defeat Syracuse, 17-14. Syracuse placekicker Andre Szmyt's 47-yard game-tying field goal attempt sailed left with 38 seconds to play, allowing the Tigers to seal the victory.

Clemson controlled the clock offensively, tallying 32:59 of possession. Kobe Pace tallied 76 yards and a touchdown on 14 carries, and quarterback DJ Uiagalelei was 21-of-34 for 181 yards and a score through the air, and added 26 yards on the ground.

Defensively, Clemson forced four three-and-outs, piled up six tackles for loss, broke up eight passes and tallied two sacks. Cornerback Mario Goodrich recorded four pass breakups, one shy of the school record.

Joseph Ngata capped a 12-play 87-yard drive with 1:03 to play in the first quarter, as he hauled in an acrobatic catch in the end zone. Syracuse answered on the next drive with a 91-yard drive to tie the score at 7-7.

After trading punts, Clemson took over with 2:06 to play in the half on its own 32-yard line. The Clemson drive appeared to stall out before punter Will Spiers hit Davis Allen for 17 yards on 4th-and-5. Uiagalelei hit Justyn Ross over the middle to bring the Tigers to the two-yard line, when Pace punched it in with just nine seconds to play in the half.

Following Potter's 40-yard fourth-quarter field goal, the Orange's Trebor Pena scored with 7:18 to play in the game on a 62-yard pass from Garrett Shrader to cut the Tigers' lead to 17-14. After a Syracuse stop, the Orange went on a 14-play, 63-yard drive to get into field goal range, but Szmyt's attempt missed left and gave the Tigers the ball to run out the final 38 seconds.

GAME 7

CLEMSON	17
PITTSBURGH	27

OCT. 23, 2021
HEINZ FIELD • PITTSBURGH, PA.

The Tiger defense held No. 23 Pitt 21 points below its season scoring average, but Clemson fell on the road at No. 23 Pittsburgh, 27-17. The game marked Clemson's first road game at Pitt in series history and represented Clemson's first set of back-to-back games north of the Mason-Dixon Line since 1952.

The Tigers started quickly, with Phil Mafah capping an eight-play, 80-yard drive with a touchdown in the first quarter. Kenny Pickett threw two touchdowns in the final 3:18 of the first half — one each to Jordan Addison and Taysir Mack — to give Pitt a 14-7 halftime lead.

The Panthers added to the lead early in the second half when SirVocea Dennis picked off a DJ Uiagalelei shovel pass and took it back 50 yards to put the Panthers ahead, 21-7.

In the third quarter, B.T. Potter added three points for Clemson on a drive led by quarterback Taisun Phommachanh, as Potter hit a 42-yard field goal to cut the Panthers' lead to 21-10. Pitt would add field goals of 44 and 34 yards to extend the lead to 27-10.

Upon reentering the game for Phommachanh, Uiagalelei recorded his third rushing touchdown of the season on a six-yard run that capped a five-play, 72-yard drive. However, upon receiving the ensuing kickoff, Pitt ran off the remaining 7:56 with a 15-play, 49-yard clock-killing drive to end the game and give the Panthers the win.

Linebacker James Skalski led the Tigers defensively with a career-high 18 tackles.

FLORIDA STATE	20

OCT. 30, 2021
MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

Will Shipley capped a three-play, 58-yard drive with a 21-yard go-ahead touchdown run with 2:53 to play and Barrett Carter scored on a fumble recovery on a desperation lateral to give Clemson a 30-20 comeback win against Florida State.

Shipley recorded his first 100-yard game of his career as he finished with 128 yards rushing and two touchdowns on 25 carries.

B.T. Potter opened the scoring in the first quarter with a 47-yard field goal. Florida State answered with a one-yard touchdown pass from Jordan Travis to Jashaun Corbin, but Myles Murphy blocked the extra point, Clemson's first blocked placekick since 2020 and first blocked PAT since 2018.

Phil Mafah's 63-yard scamper set up an 11-yard touchdown from DJ Uiagalelei to Davis Allen to give the Tigers a 10-6 advantage. But on the first play of FSU's ensuing drive, Lawrance Toafili caught a wheel route for a 75-yard touchdown after Toafili rolled over a Clemson defender and kept his feet on his way to the end zone.

An 83-yard drive capped by Shipley's first touchdown of the game gave Clemson a 17-13 lead at the half.

After a scoreless third quarter, Jermaine Johnson strip-sacked Uiagalelei, recovered the fumble and ran six yards for a touchdown to give Florida State a 20-17 lead with 7:39 remaining, setting the stage for Shipley and Carter's eventual heroics.

Clemson held Florida State to just 65 yards rushing and 241 yards of total offense. Murphy led the unit with five tackles, a blocked PAT and two of the Tigers' season-high six sacks.

LOUISVILLE	24

NOV. 6, 2021
CARDINAL STADIUM • LOUISVILLE, KY.

Facing first-and-goal from its own two-yard line with 1:18 to play, Clemson's defense came up with a game-winning goal line stand to earn a 30-24 road win at Louisville, giving the Tigers back-to-back fourth-quarter comeback wins for the first time since 2005.

DJ Uiagalelei scored the go-ahead touchdown on an eight-yard touchdown run up the middle with 4:12 to play, one of three touchdowns for which he was responsible. B.T. Potter's third field goal stretched the lead to six before the game-winning stand.

The teams traded touchdowns on their opening possessions. After a Louisville touchdown, Uiagalelei connected with Beaux Collins for a 46-yard touchdown to culminate a three-play scoring drive. Collins finished with 106 yards on six catches, becoming the first Clemson true freshman with 100 receiving yards since Justyn Ross against Alabama to end 2018.

A touchdown pass from Uiagalelei to tight end Davis Allen tied the game 17-17 at halftime, but Clemson trailed 24-17 entering the fourth quarter after Malik Cunningham's second touchdown run of the game. Clemson then outscored the Cardinals 13-0 in the final frame to earn the win.

Linebacker Trenton Simpson led the defense with 10 tackles and 2.0 sacks, both career highs. Offensively, Uiagalelei completed 18-of-30 passes for a season-high 220 yards with two passing touchdowns in addition to the go-ahead rushing touchdown.

Defensively, Clemson registered six sacks from six different players in holding the Huskies' offense to just 1.7 yards per play on the afternoon. Clemson held UConn to -21 yards rushing, tied for its second-fewest allowed in school history. The Tiger defense did not allow an offensive touchdown for the fourth time in 2021.

B.T. Potter connected on the 49-yard field goal to cut the score to 7-3. With fourth and goal from the six-yard line on the following possession, the Tigers faked the field goal and WIll Swinney ran it in for the touchdown to put the Tigers up 10-7. A 20-point second quarter including two touchdowns and two more Potter field goals helped put the game out of reach by halftime.

Clemson held UConn to 0-of-14 on third downs, its first time holding an opponent without a third down conversion since 1992 against North Carolina.

CLEMSON	48

NOV. 20, 2021
MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

Clemson finished with an undefeated home record for a fifth straight season, defeating Wake Forest, 48-27, at Memorial Stadium. Wake Forest entered the game 13th in the AP Poll, 12th in the Coaches Poll and 10th in the College Football Playoff rankings.

A trio of underclassmen stood out offensively. Sophomore Kobe Pace romped for 191 yards and a pair of touchdowns on the ground, while freshman Will Shipley accounted added 111 rushing yards, two rushing touchdowns and a passing touchdown. Freshman Beaux Collins added 137 yards and a score on four catches. Between Shipley and Collins, the game marked the first time on record that a 100-yard rushing game and 100-yard receiving game were recorded by Clemson true freshmen in a single game.

Clemson's defense recorded 10 tackles for loss, eight sacks and three takeaways while holding Wake Forest to just 36 yards rushing on 31 carries.

Clemson ran out to a 10-0 lead and led 17-10 at the half thanks to a touchdown run and a touchdown pass by Shipley as well as a 50-yard field goal by B.T. Potter, his school-record-setting sixth 50-plus-yarder of his career.

But Clemson took full control in the third quarter, as two Pace touchdown runs bookended a highlight-reel one-handed catch-and-run touchdown by Collins. Clemson led 38-10 after the third frame. Wake Forest was able to engineer two touchdown drives in the fourth quarter, but Clemson added another 10 points in the frame to send another senior class out undefeated at home.

NOV. 27, 2021
WILLIAMS-BRICE STADIUM • COLUMBIA, S.C.

Clemson closed the regular season with a 30-0 road win against South Carolina, the Tigers' record-tying seventh consecutive win in the series. The Tigers shut out the Gamecocks for the first time since 1989 to finish the regular season with a 9-3 record.

It was the fifth time Clemson held an opponent without an offensive touchdown this season, as the Tigers held South Carolina to just 206 yards of offense and only 43 yards rushing on 20 carries.

Offensively, Clemson rushed for 265 yards on 43 carries and scored all three touchdowns on the ground. Freshman Will Shipley led the way with 128 yards on 19 carries, his second straight game with more than 100 yards rushing. Kobe Pace added 58 yards, including a 34-yard touchdown, and Phil Mafah ran for 43 yards and a score.

The Tigers set the tone early, as Shipley went 29 yards for a touchdown on the opening possession. Two drives later, Andrew Booth Jr.'s first of two interceptions on the day gave Clemson a short field, leading to a 29-yard field goal by B.T. Potter.

In the first half, Clemson outgained South Carolina, 258-75 and held the Gamecocks to just three first downs to take a 17-0 lead into the break.

The Tigers added to the lead on a Potter field goal on the first possession of the second half. On Potter's third field goal of the day, he set the Clemson record for field goals of 40-plus yards for both a season and a career.

Mafah scored Clemson's final points from six yards out with 2:30 to play to bring the final score to 30-0.

Clemson's defense held one last time, with Jeremiah Trotter Jr. tackling Zeb Noland at the Clemson 3-yard line on a scramble as time expired to keep the Gamecocks out of the end zone and off the scoreboard.

GAME 13

CLEMSON	20
IOWA STATE	13

DEC. 29, 2021
CAMPING WORLD STADIUM • ORLANDO, FLA.

Cornerback Mario Goodrich forced a key fumble on fourth down with 33 seconds to play as No. 19/22 Clemson withstood a late rally to claim the 2021 Cheez-It Bowl, 20-13, over Iowa State (7-6) at Camping World Stadium in Orlando, Fla.

"It's all about how you finish," said Dabo Swinney, who won his 150th game as Clemson's head coach and became only the third head coach in FBS history to win 150 games in the first 15 seasons of his career.

Holding a 20-13 with less than two minutes to play, Clemson leaned on its defense to come up with a stop. Iowa State quarterback Brock Purdy scrambled to convert on a 4th-and-2 with 40 seconds to play when Goodrich poked the ball loose, sending it back behind the line to gain. Purdy recovered short of the first down, and Clemson took over in victory formation.

Goodrich, who was named the game's most valuable player, also added an interception return for a touchdown late in the third quarter, which gave Clemson its final points. The Tigers held Iowa State to 270 total yards, 66 on the ground, and just 112 total on 35 plays in the second half.

Clemson took the opening kickoff and scored on its first drive, which went a season-long 8:08 on 15 plays and 69 yards. B.T. Potter drilled his 20th field goal of the season, a 23-yarder to give the Tigers a 3-0 edge, as Clemson ran 11 times during the drive.

After trading scoreless drives, the Cyclones tied the game at 3-3 with a 22-yard field goal.

After a field goal miss from the Cyclones, Clemson took the next drive 41 yards before it stalled out, and Potter connected from 51 yards with 4:07 to play in the half. The kick was Potter's seventh career field goal of 50 yards or longer, the most in school history. He also added to his single-season (12) and career (26) school records for field goals of 40-plus yards.

Running back Will Shipley took a delayed handoff through the right side untouched from 12 yards out with 4:54 to play in the third quarter, putting an exclamation point on Clemson's 16-play, 79-yard drive, which ate up 7:39 of game clock. Clemson gained six first downs during the drive.

Just 53 seconds later, Justin Mascoll batted a pass from Brock Purdy up in the air, before Purdy hit the deflected ball to Mario Goodrich, who took it back 18 yards across the field for a touchdown, giving Clemson a 20-3 lead with 4:01 to play in the third quarter.

After a three-and-out, Iowa State drove deep into Clemson territory. Purdy hit Charlie Kolar for a six-yard score in the back of the endzone with 9:42 to play to pull the Cyclones within seven at 20-13. The Tigers came up empty on their next drive but pinned the Cyclones inside their own five yard line with just over six minutes to play, but K.J. Henry came up with a sack on 3rd-and-14 to give Clemson the ball back.

After going three-and-out, Clemson again leaned on its defense to come up with a stop. Goodrich's forced fumble halted Iowa State's late run.

CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBERS

The Clemson Ring of Honor is the highest honor a Tiger student-athlete can receive. A recipient must first be a member of the Clemson Hall of Fame, earn at least an undergraduate degree and make a significant contribution to the heritage of Tiger athletics. Honorees will have their jersey retired. Nine members of the football program and one football team are in the Ring of Honor.

FOOTBALL RING OF HONOR MEMBERS

1981 FOOTBALL TEAM

The 1981 football team was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor during the fall of 2006 in conjunction with the team's 25-year anniversary celebration of winning the national title. Every player, coach, manager and administrator associated with that team is considered in the Ring of Honor within the team concept. The Tigers had a perfect 12-0 record that season, as they defeated Nebraska by a score of 22-15 in the 1982 Orange Bowl to claim the National Championship. For more information on Clemson's 1981 squad, see page 8.

JERRY BUTLER

Jerry Butler joined teammate Steve Fuller in the Clemson Ring of Honor in 1999. The two-time All-ACC player was a first-team All-American in 1978 when he and Fuller led Clemson to a No. 6 national ranking and an 11-1 record. He had at least one reception in 36 consecutive games. In 1979, Butler was the No. 5 overall NFL draft pick by Buffalo, where he played at a Pro Bowl level for seven seasons.

FRED CONE

Fred Cone, who was inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1997, was the first player in Clemson history to rush for 2,000 yards in a career. Cone played for the Tigers from 1948-50. He is eighth on the Clemson career list for rushing touchdowns (30). Cone was a starter on two undefeated Clemson teams (1948,50), one of only two players in school history to accomplish that feat.

JEFF DAVIS

Jeff Davis, captain of the 1981 national title team, joined the Ring of Honor in 1995. He was a first-team All-American in 1981 when he led the team in tackles (175). Davis was also named ACC MVP and defensive MVP of the Orange Bowl win over Nebraska, the game that clinched the national championship for the Tigers. He was also inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December 2007.

DANNY FORD

Danny Ford coached Clemson to the 1981 national title at the age of 33, still the youngest coach to win one. Ford won five ACC titles and six bowl games in his 11 years as the head coach. He had a 26-10-1 record against coaches in the College Football Hall of Fame, including wins over Joe Paterno, Barry Switzer, Woody Hayes, Vince Dooley, Steve Spurrier and Tom Osborne. He finished his Tiger career with a 96-29-4 record and his 76.0 winning percentage is still among the best in ACC history. Ford was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor at the season-opening Georgia game of 2013 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December 2017.

STEVE FULLER

Steve Fuller was a charter member of the Ring of Honor in 1994. He is one of three football players in Clemson history to be chosen as an All-American on the field and in the classroom in the same year. Fuller was a two-time, first-team Academic All-American and a third-team All-American in 1978. He was the first Tiger to be named ACC Player-of-the-Year twice and was an NCAA Top Five Award winner in 1979, the only Tiger athlete to win the award.

FRANK HOWARD

Frank Howard was a charter member of the Ring of Honor in 1994. As head coach from 1940-69, he led Clemson to eight league championships, six bowl games and six top-25 seasons. Howard, who totaled 165 victories, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989.

TERRY KINARD

Terry Kinard (1979-82) was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 2001, the same year he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. The safety from Sumter, S.C. was named national defensive player-of-the-year by CBS Sports during his senior season in 1982. Kinard was named to the All Decade of the 1980's College Football team by USA Today and to the All-Century team by Sports Illustrated in 2000.

LEVON KIRKLAND

Levon Kirkland was a two-time All-American and three-time, First-Team All-ACC selection as an outside linebacker for the Tigers between 1988-91. He was a second-team All-American and a finalist for the Butkus Award on the 1990 team, which led the nation in total defense. He was also a first-team All-American in 1991. Kirkland was a second-round draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers and went on to an 11-year All-Pro career. He returned after his playing career to earn his Clemson degree and was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 2019.

BANKS McFADDEN

Banks McFadden was one of three charter members of the Clemson Ring of Honor in 1994. He was named the nation's most versatile athlete in 1939 when he was an All-American in football and basketball in the same calendar year, the only Tiger to accomplish that feat. He led the Tigers to their first bowl bid, a 6-3 victory over Boston College in the 1940 Cotton Bowl, and to the Southern Conference basketball title. He was the No. 4 overall pick of the 1940 NFL draft, tied for the highest in school history.

FORMER HEAD COACHES

WALTER RIGGS
1896,99

Walter Riggs could easily be called the father of Clemson Football. He coached the football program at Clemson, not only because he had football experience, but he was also one of only two people on the Clemson campus to have ever seen a football game when the sport started in 1896. (The other person was Frank Thompkins who played in the backfield on Clemson's first team in 1896).

On Sept. 30, 1896, a small crowd gathered in one of the barrack's rooms and the group discussed the feasibility of organizing a football association. A committee of three was appointed to consult Professor Riggs as to management of a football team and to ask his aid as coach.

When the Tigers traveled to Furman for their first game on Oct. 31, 1896, it was the first time that many of the players had ever seen a full-sized regulation football field.

Riggs stepped down as football coach after the first season because the players wanted him to devote all his time to being a professor in the engineering department.

Riggs could easily be called a loyal man, as he answered the need of the Clemson football team again in 1899. The Clemson Athletic Association was low on money and could not afford to hire a coach. Therefore, he again answered the call of the school and became head coach in 1899 for free.

Riggs originally came to Clemson from Auburn. He graduated with top honors in 1893 with a B.S. degree in electrical and mechanical engineering. At Auburn, he was captain and catcher of the baseball team as well as the manager and left end of the football team. He also served as class president and was the director of the Glee Club.

Upon his graduation at Auburn, he was assistant to the president of the college until 1896, then he made his trek to Clemson.

Riggs later became president of Clemson on March 7, 1911 and in 1915, a new football stadium with other athletic facilities was named in his honor as Riggs Field. It is currently the home of the Tiger soccer team. In two years of coaching, Riggs guided the Tigers to a career record of 6-3.

W.M. WILLIAMS
1897

Clemson's second coach, W.M. Williams, was a native of West Point, Ga. He played at Auburn on the teams of 1894, 1895 and 1896, under the coaching of John Heisman. He was considered the best blocking halfback in the south. Williams led Clemson to the state championship and to a 2-2 season. During his time as coach, Clemson played two games in three days. Clemson was victorious over the Charlotte Y on October 23, but lost to North Carolina 28-0 on October 25.

JOHN PENTON
1898

The Tigers' third coach, J.A. Penton of Alabama, was captain and starting guard on the University of Virginia teams of 1893, 1894 and 1895. He was captain of the '95 Virginia team that beat North Carolina to win the Championship of the South. Penton also played fullback at Auburn in '97 under John Heisman's coaching. Under Penton, Clemson won 55-0 over Bingham in its first home game, as W.C. Forsythe kicked every point after touchdown (11). In his only season at Clemson, Penton guided Clemson to a 3-1 record and the state title.

JOHN HEISMAN
1900-03

One of the most famous football coaches in the nation, John Heisman, coached at Clemson from 1900-03. He turned Clemson from virtually an unknown college to a southern powerhouse at the turn of the century. Heisman attended Brown University, taking the two-year law course offered at that time, and was a center on the football team. During the fall of 1889, he transferred to Pennsylvania. He lettered in football at both schools and graduated from Pennsylvania in 1893.

In the spring of 1894, Walter Riggs was a graduate manager for the football team at Auburn. It fell on his shoulders to find a coach for the season of 1895. Riggs wrote to Carl Williams, the Pennsylvania captain of 1894, asking him to suggest a suitable coach. He replied recommending J.W. Heisman, an ex-Pennsylvania player, and his coach at Oberlin.

After several weeks, Riggs finally found Heisman in Texas, where he was raising tomatoes. Having sunk all of his capital into the tomato venture, he was glad to return to his old love. He readily went to coach at Auburn for $500 a year.

His coaching career began at Oberlin in 1892 and lasted 36 years. It included positions at Akron, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia Tech, Pennsylvania, Washington & Jefferson and Rice. He had an overall career record of 185-70-17.

John Heisman invented the hidden ball trick, the handoff, the double lateral and the "flea flicker." He pioneered the forward pass, arguing that it would scatter the mob. Heisman also originated the center snap and the word hike (previously the center used to roll the ball on the ground to the quarterback).

Heisman guided Clemson to conference titles in 1900 and 1902, and he led the Tigers to their first "bowl game" in 1903, when Clemson and Cumberland met on November 26 for the "Championship of the South." Cumberland, who had earlier defeated Auburn, Alabama and Vanderbilt, was considered to be champion of the southern states of Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee and Kentucky. The game was played on a neutral site, Montgomery, Ala. Cumberland and Clemson fought to an 11-11 tie. After the news got back to Clemson that the game was a tie, the students and the local townspeople built a bonfire and paraded around the campus.

Overall, Heisman took Clemson to a 19-3-2 record in his four seasons. His 83.3 winning percentage is still the best in Clemson history. He was also the Clemson baseball coach from 1901-1903.

SHACK SHEALY
1904

Shack Shealy holds the distinction of being the only Tiger to have coached his alma mater. He lettered at Clemson from 1896-99 and later played two years at Iowa State. Shealy was a four-year starter playing right guard, end and in his senior year, he played in the backfield. He only coached Clemson one year (1904) and led the Tigers to a 3-3-1 record, including wins over Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee.

EDDIE COCHEMS

Ed Cochems lettered at Wisconsin in 1899, 1900 and 1901. He was described as a great halfback or end on the strong Wisconsin teams at the turn of the century, including the 1901 undefeated team. In his playing career, he had a 100-yard kickoff return in a 35-0 win over Chicago in 1901, and had four touchdowns against Notre Dame in 1900. After his playing days, he immediately went into coaching. He was the head coach of North Dakota in 1902 and 1903 and served briefly as an assistant with former teammate, Art Curtis at Wisconsin in 1904.

Cochems led Clemson to a 3-2-1 record overall, including wins over Georgia and Auburn. After his Clemson career, he was head coach and athletic director at St. Louis in 1906. After the forward pass was legalized in 1906, Cochems did something with the pass at once in his first year at St. Louis, while other coaches stuck with the running game. He taught his players not to throw the ball end-over-end, but instead like a projectile - a spiral. He called this new weapon a projectile pass.

Historians credit Cochems as being the first coach to use and perfect the first legal pass in a game. The first studied refinements in throwing the ball, which led to the spiral, occurred in 1906 under Cochems. Brad Robinson of St. Louis threw the first forward pass to Jack Schneider on Sept. 5, 1906 in Waukensha against Carroll.

BOB WILLIAMS
1906,09,13-15,26

Bob Williams is one of the few coaches in the nation to have coached football at two rivals. Williams coached football at both Clemson and South Carolina. Before coming to Clemson, he coached at Davidson in 1905. He coached at South Carolina for two years and guided the Gamecocks to a 6-1 record in 1902 and an 8-2 slate in 1903.

In his career at South Carolina, he administered the most unexpected defeat of Clemson, as he beat a heavily favored Heisman team, 12-6 in 1902.

He served the Tigers as head coach a total of four terms (1906,09,13-15,26). Between 1915-26, Williams practiced law in Roanoke, Va. and was the city's mayor.

One of the highlights of his career included leading the 1906 team to an unbeaten season (4-0-3), which included wins over Georgia, Auburn, Tennessee and a Heisman-coached Georgia Tech squad.

FRANK SHAUGHNESSY

Frank Shaughnessy was known for his ability as a sports administrator. He served many positions, from a pro hockey coach to the International Baseball League Commissioner. A graduate in pharmacy at Notre Dame, he was captain of the baseball and football teams during his senior season. After his graduation in 1905, he coached baseball at Notre Dame. The summer before coming to Clemson, he played for Ottawa of the Eastern League. That summer, he played left field and ended the season with a .352 batting average. He played nine MLB games in 1905 and 1908 with Washington and the Philadelphia Athletics.

At Clemson, he coached the baseball teams during 1907 and 1908, and he was head football mentor in 1907, where he posted a 4-4 record.

Shaughnessy made his name in baseball, but he took part in many other sports. Besides being a sports legend at Notre Dame, he managed the NHL's Ottawa Senators to the 1915 Stanley Cup Finals and coached football teams at Clemson, Washington and Lee and McGill. He retired as the president of the International Baseball league in 1960.

In a game against Kansas, Shaughnessy ran 107 yards for the only Irish score, as Kansas won the game 24-5. Football fields were 110 yards back then and touchdowns were five points. This is still a Notre Dame record. He passed away in 1969.

JOHN STONE
1908

John Stone is one of three coaches who graduated from Vanderbilt and later became head football coach at Clemson. While at Vanderbilt, he was a member of the All-Southern Football team for four years. He was a big man for his time, standing 6'2". Clemson was 1-6 in 1908, but the Tigers lost many of their star players and substitutes from 1907 due to a college prank that saw 306 students expelled.

FRANK DOBSON
1910-12

Frank Dobson was a pro baseball player before coming to Clemson, as he was the property of the Pittsburgh Nationals. Walter Riggs, President of the Clemson Athletic Association, thought it was unfair to keep shuffling coaches year after year. He offered Dobson a three-year contract, which was the first contract offered and signed by a Clemson coach.

At Clemson, he coached football, basketball and baseball. He was Clemson's first basketball coach, leading it to its only undefeated season (4-0) in history in the inaugural season (1911-12). In 1912-13, Clemson had a 9-5 record. He was head baseball coach from 1911-13.

WAYNE HART
1916

Wayne Hart served as head coach at Clemson in 1916 and coached the Tigers to a 3-6 record. Under Hart, the Tigers defeated Furman and South Carolina. He played three seasons at tackle for Georgetown. Hart also played one season at George Washington. He was a member of the All-South Atlantic team on four occasions. Hart also served as an assistant coach at Georgetown.

In 1913, Hart coached the Washington Vigilants, a professional football team, and did not lose a single contest. During his last two seasons prior to his arrival to Clemson, he coached various sports at Technical High School in Washington, D.C.

EDWARD DONAHUE
1917-20

Edward Donahue had to be one of the most organized men in the country. During the 1918-19 academic year, Donahue was the head coach of four Clemson sports... football, basketball, baseball and track. During his four-year career, he served as basketball and baseball coach for two years and head track coach for one season.

He was an outstanding athlete at Washington and Lee, where he played in the backfield on the football team and played catcher on the baseball diamond. Upon graduation, he was an assistant in football and was the head baseball and basketball coach.

E.J. STEWART
1921,22

E.J. Stewart was head football coach for two years at Clemson, 1921-22. However, he coached more than one sport during his stay at Tigertown. In the spring of 1921, Stewart coached the baseball and track teams while conducting spring football practice. During the fall, Stewart's football team had a 1-6-2 record, but he improved to a 5-4 slate in 1922. He went on to coach the track teams in 1922 and 1923.

Stewart was a standout athlete in football, baseball, basketball and track at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio. Upon his graduation, Stewart played, organized and served as head coach of the Massilon (Ohio) Professional football team.

Stewart also coached at Nebraska and Texas. At Nebraska, he led the Cornhuskers to a combined record of 11-4 in 1916 and 1917. The Cornhuskers also captured the Missouri Valley Conference title during both seasons. After leaving Nebraska, he entered the automobile business as President and Treasurer of the Stewart Motor Co. Due to the economic conditions at the time, he decided to go back into coaching.

BUD SAUNDERS
1923-26

Bud Saunders graduated from Missouri in 1911 with a bachelors degree in Law. At Missouri, he played both football and basketball. Saunders wanted to play two other sports, but a conference rule forbid a student-athlete from participating in more than two sports.

Saunders served as football coach at Knox College before arriving at Clemson. In football, Saunders coached for four seasons from 1923-26. He also coached the basketball teams in 1924 and 1925. Saunders' best season in football came during the 1923 campaign, as he led the Tigers to a 5-2-1 record.

JOSH CODY

Josh Cody, fondly known as "big man," will always be a favorite to Clemson fans. Cody, a big man in stature at 6-2, 220 pounds, led Clemson to victories over South Carolina for four straight years. He is the only coach in Clemson history who has been around more than two seasons who never lost a football game to South Carolina. He also defeated Furman three straight years. Cody had a 13-0-1 record in home games and posted a 72 percent winning mark overall, the fourth-best mark in Clemson history.

After a 5-3-1 start in the 1927 season, Cody guided the Tigers to back-to-back 8-3 seasons in 1928 and 1929. On May 6, 1929, to show appreciation, Cody was given a new Buick by the alumni, student body and faculty.

In his final season (1930), the Tigers finished with a record of 8-2. Cody also coached basketball at Clemson for five seasons and guided Clemson to a 16-9 slate in 1930. During the 1928-30 seasons, he guided Clemson to a 22-4 mark at home. Cody went on to coach Temple's men basketball team from 1942-52. He took the Owls to their first NCAA Tournament in 1944.

JESS NEELY
1931-39

Clemson played in its first bowl game under Jess Neely in the 1940 Cotton Bowl. The Tigers, unknown at the time, became a household word after defeating heavily-favored Boston College 6-3 in the Cotton Bowl. It was the Tigers' first victory over a top-20 ranked team in school history. Clemson had a 43-35-7 record during Neely's tenure.

Neely came to Clemson in 1931 and his recruitment of Banks McFadden took Clemson to another level. In 1938, Neely coached Clemson to a second-place finish in the Southern Conference with a 7-1-1 record.

In 1939, Banks McFadden became Clemson's second All-American, and the team concluded the season with a trip to Dallas for the Cotton Bowl. Neely left Clemson in January 1940 and moved on to Rice, where he took that school to new heights. Neely is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. Neely's landmark accomplishments in the 1930s at Clemson contributed significantly to Clemson's outstanding football tradition.

FRANK HOWARD
1940-69

Frank Howard succeeded Jess Neely in 1940 when Neely moved on to Rice. He got the job when he seconded his own nomination during a meeting of the president and athletic council. He signed a one-year contract, then lost the document and never had another in his 30 years as head coach.

He graduated from Alabama in 1931, where he was a star lineman. He played in the 1930 Rose Bowl, then started his coaching career under Neely at Clemson in 1931, and was a part of a rebirth of Tiger football in the late 1930s. He was an assistant on the 1939 team that posted a 9-1 mark and beat Boston College 6-3 in the Tigers' first bowl game.

In 1940, he began his head coaching career with a bang as he won the Southern Conference title, the first of eight conference titles Howard won in his coaching career, still a Tiger coaching record.

Howard had his most successful season in 1948 when he took Clemson to an 11-0 record, the Tigers' first perfect season since 1900. The campaign included a Southern Conference championship, a Gator Bowl win over Missouri and a No. 11 final ranking. He nearly duplicated the feat in 1950 when he guided Clemson to a No. 10 AP final ranking, a 9-0-1 finish and a 15-14 win over Miami (Fla.) in the Orange Bowl.

When he retired in 1969, Howard was the fifth-winningest coach in the nation with 165 victories, quite an accomplishment considering only 38 percent of his games were at home. He had 96 wins as an ACC coach, now fourth in conference history, and he captured six (five outright and one co-championship) ACC titles, a record Bobby Bowden broke in 1998. Howard's teams appeared in six bowl games, 63 of his players were drafted by the NFL, and 37 played in the league.

Howard, a native of Barlow Bend, Ala., had six top-20 seasons, won eight conference titles (two Southern, six ACC), won 100 conference games and was a two-time ACC Coach-of-the-Year. He coached 25 academic All-ACC selections and five Academic All-Americans. Eleven of his players were chosen on-the-field All-Americans. Howard was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989 and he was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 1994.

HOOTIE INGRAM
1970-72

Hootie Ingram will be best remembered as the coach who made the Tiger Paw famous. Before his first year as head coach in 1970, Clemson introduced the Tiger Paw as the official logo of Clemson University's Athletic teams.

Ingram graduated from Alabama in 1955. He also received his master's degree in school administration from Alabama and later became Crimson Tide athletic director. The native of Tuscaloosa, Ala., was an All-SEC defensive back for the Crimson Tide as a senior. He had his best season (5-6) at Clemson in 1971. He also finished second in the ACC standings with a 4-2 league mark in 1971. He was later inducted into the Orange Bowl Hall of Fame.

RED PARKER
1973-76

Red Parker spent four years at Clemson as head coach. His 1974 squad lived up to the theme "Excitement Galore, Clemson Football '74" and had a 7-4 record, with victories over Georgia, Georgia Tech and South Carolina. Before arriving in Tigertown, Parker spent seven years (1966-72) as head coach at The Citadel. He guided the Bulldogs to a 8-3 record during in the 1971 campaign.

Parker earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Arkansas A&M in 1953. He earned three letters each in football, basketball and track, as a running back-defensive back, second-baseman/shortstop and sprinter. He later served as head coach at Harmony Grove High School in Arkansas. He died Jan. 4, 2016.

CHARLEY PELL
1977,78

Charley Pell, who was Clemson's head coach in 1977,78 authored college football's Cinderella story in 1977. The Albertville, Ala. product took a team that was 3-6-2 in 1976, and led the 1977 Tigers to an 8-2-1 regular-season mark and a berth in the Gator Bowl. It was Clemson's first final top-20 season since 1959. He coached Clemson to a 10-1 regular season in the 1978 season before he left to become head coach at Florida. Clemson's 1978 team beat Ohio State in the Gator Bowl and finished ranked No. 6 in the AP poll in his second year as Clemson's head coach.

He was a near unanimous choice as ACC Coach-of-the-Year in 1977 and 1978, the first coach, regardless of sport, to win ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors in each of his first two years. A two-way starter and three-year letterwinner at Alabama, Pell was on its 1961 National Championship team.

He came to Clemson in 1976 and served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator. Pell passed away in June 2001 after battling cancer.

DANNY FORD
1978-89

Danny Ford had an auspicious beginning to his head coaching career. He gained a 17-15 win over Ohio State in the 1978 Gator Bowl. The 30-year-old coach, the youngest in Division I at the time, also defeated a college football legend in a contest that put Clemson on the national map, as he defeated Woody Hayes in the latter's last game. He had taken over the coaching reigns on Dec. 10, 1978 when Charley Pell resigned to become head coach at Florida.

Ford kept things going in 1979 with wins over Georgia and Notre Dame and another trip to a bowl (Peach). In 1981, he helped Clemson reach the summit of college football by winning the national title. His Tigers downed three top-10 teams during the course of the 12-0 season that concluded with a 22-15 win over Nebraska in the Orange Bowl. Ford was named National Coach-of-the-Year.

The wins continued in 1982 and 1983, as Clemson had consecutive 9-1-1 years. Clemson finished in the top 12 in both years, and had a 30-2-2 record over a three-year period, best in the nation.

Clemson won three straight ACC titles under his guidance between 1986-88. In 1989, Clemson registered a 10-2 season and top 12 national ranking, the fourth straight season Clemson finished in the final AP top 20. He closed his career with a 27-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl, his sixth bowl win in eight tries and his fourth in succession.

Ford was the third winningest active coach in the nation on a percentage basis at the end of the 1989 season. He finished with a 96-29-4 career ledger at Clemson and remains one of only four coaches in ACC history with better than a 75 percent winning mark (minimum of four years). Ford finished his Tiger career with a 76-percent winning percentage and five ACC championships.

The 1969 Alabama graduate is still the youngest coach to win the national title, as he was just 33-years-old when the Tigers shocked the college football world in 1981. He coached 71 first-team All ACC selections and 26 All-Americans. Forty-two of his former Tigers were drafted by the NFL, and he earned 18 wins over AP top-20 teams during his career. Additionally, 11 of his former players won Super Bowl championship rings. At one stretch, his teams were ranked in the AP top 20 for 41 straight polls, a Tiger record. He had a 31-13-1 record against 15 coaches who are now in the Hall of Fame.

Ford is a member of the Clemson Hall of Fame, the state of South Carolina Hall of Fame and the Orange Bowl Hall of Fame.

Ford was an All-SEC pick and All-SEC Academic choice at Alabama. He attended Alabama initially on a basketball/football scholarship, but he only played football after his freshman season. Ford played in three bowl games for the Crimson Tide. He later served as head coach at Arkansas from 1994-97. Ford was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor on Aug. 31, 2013 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December 2017.

KEN HATFIELD
1990-93

Ken Hatfield led the Tigers to a 32-13-1 record during his four-year tenure, led the squad to three bowl appearances and an ACC championship. With a victory over Illinois in the 1991 Hall of Fame Bowl, Hatfield became the first Clemson coach to win 10 games in his first year and his .833 winning percentage was the best for a first-year Clemson coach since 1900, when John Heisman was 6-0. That season included six victories over teams with winning records, more than any other team that year with the exception of National Champion Georgia Tech.

Hatfield was also just the eighth coach in the previous 13 years to take a team to a top-10 AP final ranking in his first year with the program, as the Tigers finished the year No. 9 in the AP poll. The Helena, Ark. native would also lead the 1991 and 1993 Tiger teams to top 25-rankings. Clemson became the third school that Hatfield coached to a top-20 ranking, as his 1983 Air Force team ranked No. 15 and he led four Arkansas teams to top-20 rankings. He became the sixth coach in NCAA history to accomplish that feat.

Hatfield played for three years at Arkansas (1962-64) and was a starter on the 1964 National Championship team. The defensive back earned his fame as the nation's top punt returner in 1963 and 1964. He was the first player to finish in the top two in the nation in punt returns three straight years, as he finished second in 1962. He retired as Rice's head coach in 2005 with 168 career wins. He is now retired and living in Arkansas.

DANNY FORD LED CLEMSON TO FIVE ACC TITLES.

TOMMY WEST
1993-98

Tommy West's five-year resumé as Clemson head coach included four bowl appearances, 12 road victories, 86 school records and unparalleled academic excellence. West took Clemson to three straight bowl games between the 1995 and 1997 seasons, just the second Clemson coach in history to take the Tigers to bowl games in three straight seasons.

Academically, 61 Tigers made the ACC Academic Honor Roll in his last four years, twice as many as the best previous four-year total in school history.

West took over as head coach on Nov. 29, 1993 and less than a month later had a bowl victory. The former Tennessee tight end succeeded Ken Hatfield, who left four days after a victory over South Carolina to end the 1993 season.

It was West's second tour of duty with Clemson. He had been a linebackers coach under Danny Ford between 1982-89. Clemson was 69-20-4 and had six AP top 20 finishes in that eight-year era.

West coached the Tigers in the 1993 Peach Bowl, a thrilling 14-13 win over Kentucky. He became the first coach in college history to win a bowl game in his first game without having coached the team in any capacity earlier in the year.

West's best season was 1995, as Clemson finished the regular season with five straight victories by 17 points or more and was invited to the Gator Bowl. Clemson was ranked in the top 25 of every poll at the end of the 1995 regular season. That Clemson team also finished fourth in the nation in rushing offense.

West recruited some of the top players in Tiger history. The school was in the top 10 in the nation in NFL draftees during the 1998 and 1999 selection process, and all 11 players were recruited by West. The list included three first-round defensive picks (Trevor Pryce, Anthony Simmons, Antwan Edwards). Clemson was the only school in the nation to have six defensive players drafted in 1999 and the only school to have a first-round defensive pick in 1997, 1998 and 1999.

The native of Gainesville, Ga. finished his career with a 31-28 record and had four wins over top-25 teams. He was the head coach at Memphis from 2001-09 and he led the Tigers to a nine-win season and the program's first bowl appearance in 32 years in 2003. He took Memphis to five bowls overall, and overall he coached in nine bowl games as a head coach. West was the defensive coordinator at Southern Mississippi in 2012 and is now an assistant coach at Middle Tennessee.

TOMMY BOWDEN
1999-08

Tommy Bowden was a consistent winner over his nine-and-a-half years as Clemson's head coach. From 1999-08, he never had a losing season, and that included a streak of eight consecutive winning seasons from 2000-07. During those seasons, only four other Division I coaches had a winning season in all eight of those years with the same program.

Bowden was a two-time ACC Coach-of-the-Year, joining Frank Howard, Charley Pell, Danny Ford and Dabo Swinney with that distinction. He first won the honor in 1999, his first year when he took over a team that had been 3-8 the previous season, to a 6-6 season against a top-10 schedule according to the Sagarin ratings. Clemson played three undefeated teams during the regular season (Marshall, Virginia Tech, Florida State).

His first year included a nationally-televised game against Florida State that featured the first-ever Division I coaching matchup of father and son. Bobby Bowden's Seminoles won that game by a score of 17-14, Florida State's closest game in an undefeated National Championship season. The game attracted over 85,000 fans and the largest media contingent in the history of Memorial Stadium. There were nine Bowden Bowls overall, with Bobby winning five, but Tommy won four of the last five contests.

Bowden took Clemson to an 8-0 start and a No. 3 national ranking in 2000 before finishing with a 9-2 regular-season record and a No. 14 final ranking. The regular season concluded with a 16-14 victory over a top-25 South Carolina team. A 50-yard pass from Woodrow Dantzler to Rod Gardner is regarded as one of the most-exciting plays in Clemson history. The following year, Dantzler went on to become the first quarterback in Division I history to reach 2,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a single season.

Bowden also won ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors in 2003 when he led the Tigers to a 9-4 record. That season, the Tigers won their last four games, including a 26-10 win over No. 3 Florida State. Clemson defeated South Carolina 63-17 in the regular-season finale and completed the season with a 27-14 win over No. 6 Tennessee in the Peach Bowl. Clemson finished the year in the top 25 of both polls as well.

Bowden finished with a 7-2 record against the Gamecocks. The 77.8 winning percentage is the best in school history among Tiger coaches who served the program at least five seasons. All seven of his victories were over Hall of Fame Head Coaches Lou Holtz and Steve Spurrier.

After a 3-3 start to the 2008 season, Bowden resigned on October 13, four days after a 12-7 loss at Wake Forest. He had a 72-45 record (.615) at Clemson for those nine-and-a-half seasons. Bowden never had a losing season, overall or in the ACC, during his nine complete seasons. He led the Tigers to eight bowl games.

Bowden now resides in Florida.

BOWL HISTORY

Clemson has a rich bowl tradition. The Tigers have 26 bowl wins, tied for 10th most in history, and their 48 bowl games are tied for 12th most in history. Their first bowl game was in the 1940 Cotton Bowl when the Tigers defeated Frank Leahy (Boston College) 6-3.

The Tigers have played in a bowl game 33 of the last 37 years (including the 2021 season). That is among the top-10 bowl appearances since 1985. Clemson has also been bowl-eligible 23 consecutive years.

The Tigers have beaten some of the top programs in college football history in bowl games. The list of schools Clemson has beaten in a bowl game includes prominent programs Alabama, LSU, Miami (Fla.), Nebraska, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Penn State, Stanford, Tennessee and West Virginia.

Clemson won its first three bowl games, victories over Boston College, Missouri and Miami (Fla.). The three coaches Clemson beat in those games were Frank Leahy, Don Faurot and Andy Gustafson, and all three are in the College Football Hall of Fame.

Seven different head coaches (Jess Neely, Frank Howard, Danny Ford, Ken Hatfield, Tommy West, Tommy Bowden, Dabo Swinney) have all been victorious in bowl games for the Tigers since the 1939 season.

Overall, 10 of Clemson's 26 bowl wins have come against head coaches who are in the College Football Hall of Fame. Clemson is 4-0 in bowl games against the top-six winningest coaches in FBS history in terms of winning percentage (Frank Leahy, Tom Osborne, Barry Switzer and Urban Meyer). The Tigers also have eight bowl wins over top-10 teams since 2012.

Clemson has achieved bowl wins over some of the greatest coaches in history:

- Frank Leahy when Clemson defeated Boston College in the 1940 Cotton Bowl.
- Joe Paterno (Penn State) when Clemson beat Penn State 35-10 in the 1988 Citrus Bowl. It was Paterno's largest margin of defeat in a bowl game.
- Woody Hayes (Ohio State) in the 1978 Gator Bowl, Hayes' last game as a coach.
- Barry Switzer (Oklahoma) in the 1989 Citrus Bowl, Switzer's final game as a college coach.
- Tom Osborne (Nebraska) in the 1982 Orange Bowl, which gave Clemson its first national championship at the end of the 1981 season.
- Don Nehlen (West Virginia) when Clemson downed the Mountaineers 27-7 in the 1989 Gator Bowl.
- Phillip Fulmer (Tennessee), who had over 150 career wins, in the 2003 Peach Bowl.
- Les Miles (LSU), who led the Tigers to the 2007 national championship, fell to Clemson 25-24 in the 2012 Chick-fil-A Bowl.
- Urban Meyer (Ohio State) in the 2013 Orange Bowl and 2016 Fiesta Bowl
- Bob Stoops, who won a national championship in the 2000 season with Oklahoma, saw his Sooners fall in back to back bowl games, including the 2015 Orange Bowl.
- Nick Saban, who had won four national championships and was riding a 26-game winning streak, fell to the Tigers in the 2016 national championship game in Florida.
- Nick Saban for the second time at the end of the 2018 season, as the Tigers claimed their second national title in three years with a 44-16 win.
